TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME October 21, 2018

"Not to be served but to serve"

Scripture: Mark 10:35-45

And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him, and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" And they said to him, "We are able." And Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared." And when the ten heard it, they began to be indignant at James and John. And Jesus called them to him and said to them, "You know that those who are supposed to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them. But it shall not be so among you; but whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of man also came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Meditation: Who doesn't want to be first, and to be esteemed and honored by others? We seem to have an unquenchable thirst for recognition and fame, power and authority to rule our own lives as we please as well as the lives of others. Should we be surprised to see the disciples of Jesus thirsting for power, position, and authority? James and John, the sons of Zebedee, urged their mother to strike a deal with Jesus, their Master and Messiah. They wanted the distinction of being first and most important in position, next to Jesus, of course!

Jesus turns authority and power upside down
When Jesus called the twelve apostles to be his inner circle of disciples who would teach and exercise spiritual authority on his behalf, he did the unthinkable! Jesus taught contrary to the world's understanding of power, authority, and position, by reversing the order of master and servant, lord and subject, first and last! Jesus wedded authority with love, position with sacrifice, and service with humility. Authority without love is over-bearing and slavish. Position without respect and concern for the subordinate is demeaning and rude. And service without generosity and sacrifice is cheap and unkind.

Those who wish to serve with the Lord Jesus and to exercise authority in God's kingdom must be prepared to sacrifice - not just some of their time, money, and resources - but their whole lives and all that they possess! Jesus used stark language to explain what kind of sacrifice he had in mind. His disciples must drink his cup if they expect to reign with him in his kingdom. The cup he had in mind was a bitter one involving crucifixion. What kind of cup does the Lord have in mind for us? For some disciples such a cup entails physical suffering and the painful struggle of martyrdom. But for many, it entails the long routine of the Christian life, with all its daily sacrifices, disappointments, set-backs, struggles, and temptations.

REFLECTION

The Gospel of the day presents a teaching by Jesus on having the proper disposition towards wealth and riches and to live a life of detachment, for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

With this deep look of love, Jesus makes another powerful statement to the one whom he loved, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell, what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven".

True love makes a demand. True love demands perfection. True love perfects the one who is loved. Jesus, who loves us that much, wants us to be the best and perfect – in our love for God and in following Him.

Perhaps, we need to realize that, our lives are nothing, but a gift from the Lord. The wealth we enjoy, the comforts we take pleasure in, the talents with which we engage in many activities, are all a gift from God, to be utilized, nurtured and cherished, for the glory of God. None of us have any right to be possessed by it. None of us will find true joy in being obsessed with it.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Have you ever felt crushed in your infirmity or weakness?

We all have seasons of life filled with serious difficulties and can relate to this weekend's readings.

Whether it is physical illness, financial stress, struggling children, or spiritual desolation, the key for us as married couples is to pull together in adversity, instead of allowing distance to blossom.

Here are some suggestions:

- Learn to share feelings in a safe way (Worldwide Marriage Encounter and Every Day in Love can teach you!).
- Respect that your spouse may not react to the situation the way you do.
- Pray together daily.
- Be generous with physical affection.
- Be eager to help with your spouse's responsibilities when they have a bad day.

~FAITH~ FAMILY~ COMMUNITY~

Father Joe was privileged to wear a stole worn by the recently beatified St. Pope Paul VI while celebrating mass last week. The first class relic is in the possession of the AVI Sisters in Overland Park.

The Sisters remain ever grateful to our Annunciation parishioner, Cleo Langley, who is so generous with her talents. She made a display case covering the first class relic.
