“Jesus manifested his glory at Cana”

On the third day there was a marriage at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there; Jesus also was invited to the marriage, with his disciples. When the wine failed, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "O woman, what have you to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now six stone jars were standing there, for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the steward of the feast." So they took it. When the steward of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Every man serves the good wine first; and when men have drunk freely, then the poor wine; but you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in him. After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother and his brothers and his disciples; and there they stayed for a few days.

Meditation: Do you recognize the glory and presence of the Lord Jesus in your life? God often reveals his glory to us in the unlikeliest of places - in a cold stable at Bethlehem, at a village wedding party in Cana, on a bloody cross at Golgatha, or on the road to Emmaus. In today's Gospel reading we see the first public sign and miracle which Jesus performed. The Lord Jesus brought great blessing and joy to a newly wed couple and their wedding party. First by his presence, and second by saving them from embarrassment when the wine ran out. Changing water into wine was a remarkable act of kindness; but giving the best to last was unnecessary and unheard of. In the Old Testament wine is seen as both a gift and blessing of God (Deuteronomy 7:13; Proverbs 3:10, Psalm 105:). That Jesus would miraculously produce 120 gallons of the best wine (many times more than needed) shows the superabundance of the blessings which he came to offer.

REFLECTION

Baptism was a beginning... an initiation...into a life of grace...a journey with the Lord!

The Spirit of the Lord is within us...
 And the call from deep within us is strong...
 "Rise up from slumber, if you are sleeping...
 As a Baptized Christian, you have a very noble vocation and an immense responsibility...
 Christian Life is not a joke, it does not tolerate passivity. It does not allow lethargy!
 Look up! Mother Church is waiting to embrace you in deep love with Her Sacraments. Mother Mary and all the Saints and Angels are encouraging you to become a Saint.

Yes, You are a Baptized Child of God
 ...Consecrated to the Lord
 ...Holy to Him!
 Be true...
 Be Faithful...
 Be Enthusiastic...
 Be Proud to be a Christian!
 Yes, let us re-ignite the fire and love of being a Christian...
 Let's renew our Baptism!
 Let's live our Baptism! Amen!

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Extraordinary Time

As we begin the second week of Ordinary Time, it's a good time to think about our "ordinary lives," which can often be considered boring. This weekend's Gospel teaches us that God thinks our "ordinary lives" are meant for more than a dull drudgery. At a wedding feast, Jesus makes water into the choicest wine. That same Jesus is present in the sacrament of your marriage, ready to elevate the ordinary into the extraordinary! To get there, "Do whatever He tells you," perhaps by:

- Finding out why the Church teaches difficult things, such as using natural family planning instead of contraception
- Having your marriage serve the Church by mentoring the engaged
- Clearing a weekend to attend Worldwide Marriage Encounter or "Living in Love"

Baptism of Rosalie Pagan at St Francis.
