"Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit"

Scripture: Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-22

Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things which have been accomplished among us, just as they were delivered to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, that you may know the truth concerning the things of which you have been informed.

And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and a report concerning him went out through all the surrounding country. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up; and he went to the synagogue, as his custom was, on the Sabbath day. And he stood up to read; and there was given to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. He opened the book and found the place where it was written, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." And he closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, "Is not this Joseph's son?"

Meditation: What does the Gospel of Luke tell us about Jesus and his mission and what he came to do for us? Many skeptics question the reliability and accuracy of the Gospel accounts of Jesus. Luke tells us that his account is utterly believable because it comes from firsthand witnesses (Luke 1:2) who knew Jesus personally, heard him teach, saw his miracles, and witnessed his atoning death on the cross and his rising from the tomb to everlasting life.

Luke begins his account by addressing his friend, Theophilus, a name which means "beloved of God" (Luke 1:3). In so many words Luke tells his friend (and us as well), I am writing to you the most incredible story humankind has known - and which many witnesses and messengers of God's word have openly explained on many occasions. Luke wants his friend and all who read his account to "know the truth" (Luke 1:4) concerning Jesus of Nazareth who was sent from the Father in heaven and anointed by the Holy Spirit to bring us the good news and power of God's kingdom.

REFLECTION

After Mary's intercession and advocacy to remedy the situation at Cana, some people are puzzled by Jesus' reply, "Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not yet come." (John 2:4) Sometimes people ask me if Jesus is being rude or disrespectful to his mother. Many things in John's Gospel have a hidden second meaning, they are symbols, and when Jesus called Mary "Woman" at Cana he was not rude or disrespectful. This is not the only time when Jesus called Mary "Woman." The other time was when Jesus was dying on the cross and he said, "Woman, behold your son" (John 19:26) and to John he said, "This is your mother" (John 19:27) and we know Jesus was not disrespectful to his mother then. On the cross Jesus means that Mary is the spiritual mother of us all. Mary, by co-operating with God's plan of salvation, became the New Eve. She is the woman who fixed what the first woman, Eve, had broken. So at Cana when Jesus calls Mary "Woman" we only understand fully what Jesus means when Jesus calls Mary "Woman" on the cross as he gives her to us as our spiritual mother, the New Eve. So instead of being an insult or disrespectful to call Mary "Woman" Jesus is saying she is the New Eve, she is the woman who has been awaited for centuries since God's prediction to the serpent in Genesis that Eve's offspring would bruise its head (Gen 3:15).

Mary's response to Jesus was to tell the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." (John 2:5) It shows us Mary's total trust in the Word of God. She is the first person in John's Gospel to show total trust in the Word of God. Mary is therefore a model Christian for us as she says, "Do whatever he tells you." Let us ask Mary to help us to do whatever Jesus tells us. As Mary says, "Do whatever he tells you" once again we see Mary's importance as our intercessor, pleading on our behalf. In conclusion, we remember that many times each day we ask Mary to intercede before God for us, to be our Advocate.

MARRIAGE MINUTE

There's no place like home or is there?

Having just celebrated Christmas and many having the chance to reconnect with family members, we can be sentimental about the experience. Still others have very strained relationships with family members and old friends particularly because of choices made to live the Catholic Faith more intentionally.

If this is your situation, you share the company of Jesus in this weekend's Gospel. The strain in these relationships can cause hurt, but Jesus desires us to stand with him in confidence. To buoy your relationship with Jesus, try:

- Praying for those who "persecute" you.
- Forgive those who say hurtful things or ignore you.
- Intentionally use words of affirmation with those who speak ill of you.
