THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 5, 2019

"Do you love the Risen Lord Jesus above all else?"

Scripture: John 21:1-19

After this Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he revealed himself in this way. Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat; but that night they caught nothing. Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any fish?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, for the quantity of fish.

That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his clothes, for he was stripped for work, and sprang into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, but about a hundred yards off. When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish lying on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and although there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish. 14 This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

15 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you girded yourself and walked where you would; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish to go." (This he said to show by what death he was to glorify God.) And after this he said to him, "Follow me."

Meditation: Why didn't the apostles immediately recognize the Risen Lord Jesus when he greeted them at the Sea of Tiberias (also called the lake of Gennesaret or Galilee)? John gives us a clue. He states that Peter had decided to return to his home district of Galilee, very likely so he could resume his fishing career. Peter was discouraged and didn't know what to do after the tragedy of Jesus' death! He went back to his previous job as a fisherman out of uncertainty for his future. Six of the other apostles followed him back to Galilee.

REFLECTION

The Gospel of the Day is another Resurrection account of the Risen Lord to His Apostles.. Thomas was not with the group on the previous occasion that the Lord appeared to His chosen ones. And so when the Lord makes His appearance, He specially calls out on Thomas, to experience and believe in His Risen Body: "Then He said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving but believe'" (Jn 20:27) Jesus came to the world to "save and seek the lost.

Thomas, the Apostle was lost...was lost in doubts over the reports and talks about the Resurrection of the Lord; lost within himself on whether he could trust the words of his companions, who often had wavered, even in the past, over many matters; lost in missing out a chance to encounter His Master, since he had stayed away from the community.

But the Good Shepherd now comes in search of this "lost" sheep, and this sheep, submits to the mercy and compassion of the Shepherd...

"My Lord and my God" (Jn 20:28) were the confessing words of Thomas to Jesus, His Master. The Lord displays His wonderful mercy to Thomas, the "lost" sheep, who was willing to be found. The Lord manifests His compassionate mercy, to Thomas, His "chosen" one, who was ready to humble himself before the Lord.

This then is the great lesson that we can learn ...the Lord is willing to be found, by those who seek Him.; The Lord is waiting to be experienced, by those who want Him; The Lord is wanting to be encountered, by those who long for Him.

This Feast of the Mercy Sunday also is a beautiful reminder and invitation to experience the Love and Mercy of the Lord, in the two Treasures that Holy Mother the Church constantly offers - the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist and the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

With love in our hearts, let us cry out, "My Lord and my God" and with hope in the mercies of God, let us sing, "Jesus, I trust in You!"

Marriage Minute

We spend a good percentage of our lives working out practical household details:

Who is driving? How do we fix that?

This weekend, the disciples are dealing with a dispute in the community, and, like us, they came up with a very practical solution.

Our faith is deep and rich, but sometimes, the Holy Spirit answers our prayers with simple problem-solving. Could your marriage use some similar strategies?

- A means of communicating feelings in a safe way that will bring you closer.

- A powerful way to break a habit of criticism.

- A process to heal hurts quickly and effectively (without making them worse!).

- A way to make decisions while preserving a tender atmosphere.

We teach these skills in Every Day in Love! Register now for June: www.archkck.org/everyday

A BEAUTIFUL SUNDAY AT ST. FRANCIS!
