Annunciation Catholic Church St. Francis Catholic Church FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER May 12, 2019

"My sheep hear my voice"

Scripture: John 10:27-30

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one."

Meditation: How secure is your faith and trust in God? Jesus speaks of the tremendous trust he has in God his Father and the tremendous trust we ought to have in him because he is our good shepherd (John 10:11). What is the significance of Jesus calling himself the Good Shepherd? Shepherds were very common in the land of Jesus' time. A shepherd could have hundreds or thousands of sheep under his care. Sheep without a shepherd were vulnerable prey for predators, such as wolves and thieves. If a sheep strayed from the fold it could easily get lost, fall into a ravine, or become injured. Shepherds had to keep a constant watch over their folds by day and by night. That is why shepherds had to literally live with their sheep so they could lead them out to good pasture for grazing during the day and bring them to a safe place at night for rest and shelter. Shepherds got to know their sheep well and kept a careful count each evening. They also called their sheep by name so the sheep could recognize the shepherd's voice when he called them to follow him.

*The Good Shepherd and Guardian of our souls
God used the image of a shepherd to describe his covenant relationship and care for his chosen people who were called by his name (Psalm 80:1 and 100:3). God called David, who shepherded his father's flock in his youth, to be the anointed king and shepherd for his people Israel (Ezekiel 37:24). Jesus, God's anointed Messiah and King, born from the tribe of David, called himself the Good Shepherd of the people whom his Father had entrusted to his care (John 10:29).*

Peter the Apostle tells us that the Lord Jesus is the Good Shepherd and Guardian of our souls (1 Peter 2:25). He keeps a close and personal watch over every one of his sheep - his followers (disciples) who belong to him. He calls each of us personally by name to follow him. And he promises to be our guardian and protector from the snares of our enemy, Satan, the father of lies and a murderer from the beginning (John 8:44). The Lord leads us each day to good pastures - places where we can feed on his word and drink from the well-springs of living water which is his Holy Spirit (John 7:38-39, John 4:14). If we feed on his word and drink from the living water of the Holy Spirit, we will find the nourishment and strength we need to live each day for his glory and honor. Do you recognize the voice of your Shepherd and Guardian who calls to you each day?

REFLECTION

The Risen Lord, became for the Apostles, the source, strength and summit for their expression of faith and trust. Today, we are invited to have this similar faith - bold, passionate and zealous- in the Risen Lord.

However, sometimes, the Resurrection of the Lord remains only a mere "theoretical" dogma and fails to get converted to a "practical" and experiential reality in our life.

Our lives are still lived in "fear".... Our activities are still conducted with "apprehension"

We live our lives without much "joy"... We spend our days without much "hope"

Our minds sometimes, do not really have faith or trust in this mysterious miracle of the Resurrection, yet we continue to hold on this mystery, expecting favors and benefits!

The Risen Lord today invites us... to believe in Him more deeply and witness His life more radically in our lives.

He offers His Holy Eucharist as His Risen and Living Presence in our midst.

He gives His Holy Word as His Dynamic and Transforming Reality in our lives.

Let us grow more and more, in our conviction and love for Jesus, the Life and the Resurrection.

With St Peter, let us also proclaim and profess: "Lord, You know everything! You know that I love You!" (Jn 21: 17b) May our faith in Him, not be a "pragmatic" approach, just to receive favors and benefits... rather, may it grow, transform and bring renovations in our life! Amen!

MARRIAGE MINUTE

We spend a good percentage of our lives working out practical household details:

Who is driving? How do we fix that?

This weekend, the disciples are dealing with a dispute in the community, and, like us, they came up with a very practical solution.

Our faith is deep and rich, but sometimes, the Holy Spirit answers our prayers with simple problem-solving. Could your marriage use some similar strategies?

- A means of communicating feelings in a safe way that will bring you closer.

- A powerful way to break a habit of criticism.

- A process to heal hurts quickly and effectively (without making them worse!).

- A way to make decisions while preserving a tender atmosphere.

We teach these skills in Every Day in Love! Register now for June: www.archkck.org/everyday

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

Blessings to all Mothers on this Beautiful Day!
