"Love one another as I have loved you"

Scripture: John 13:31-35

When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of man glorified, and in him God is glorified; if God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him at once. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going you cannot come.' A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Meditation: How does God reveal his glory to us? During his last supper with his disciples on the eve of his sacrifice on the cross, Jesus speaks of his glory and the glory of his Father. What is this glory? It is the cross which Jesus speaks of here. The cross of Jesus reveals the tremendous love and mercy of God the Father and his beloved Son for the human race. John the Evangelist writes, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

*The true nature of love
There is no greater glory and honor that one can offer than the willing sacrifice of one's life for the sake of another. This is the true nature of love - the total self-giving and free offering of one's life for the good of another. A mother who loves her child will do everything in her power to nurture, protect, and save the life of the child. A soldier devoted to his country's welfare, will endure any hardship and suffering and willingly sacrifice his own life to defend his people. God the Father showed the unfathomable depth of his love and mercy by willingly offering his only begotten Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, as the atoning sacrifice for the sin of the world. To ransom a slave God gave his only Son. That slave is you and me and the whole human race which is bound in sin and death and separation from God.*

REFLECTION

The shepherd would have a particular speech or voice, that will help to call out a particular sheep. The sheep would, gradually, 'internalise' this sound or name and will respond to this call of its loving shepherd!

This is the illustration that Jesus uses to point out that His "sheep will follow Him, because they will recognize His voice" (Jn 10:4)

But we live in a world, where there are often many other "noises" which prevent us from hearing the Voice of the Good Shepherd.

Are we aware of these "noises"? The "noise" of sin which prevents us from hearing the sweet, gentle voice of the Spirit within us...

The "noise" of worldliness that causes us to be attracted to the pleasures of comforts and avoid the whispers to holiness and sanctity...

The "noise" of discouragements and lukewarmness that makes us to be apathetic and indifferent to the needs and service of others and of God...

The "noise" of obstinacy and hard-heartedness to the promptings of the Holy Spirit which are transmitted through the Scriptures, the Church Teachings and the inspirations of people and situations of life.

All such noises affect the "speech-recognizing" ability in us to hear clearly and distinctly the Voice of the Lord.

We need an upgrading of our "speech-recognizing" system...

We need a servicing of our "speech-recognizing" mechanism...

The Great Shepherd is waiting for us to be heard...

He is gently talking to us... He is softly whispering to us...

Let us do away with any "noises" that affect the "speech-recognizing technology" of our spiritual lives...Amen!

MARRIAGE MINUTE

Since Easter, we've been hearing about the rapid growth of the early Church, mostly due to the example of the Christians, whose lives were radically different than those around them. In short, they heeded Jesus' commandment to "love one another." We can courageously be "different" in our marriages:

- Prioritizing our marriage by attending marriage retreats and workshops
- Not criticizing or "venting" about our spouse to others
- Being humble enough to apologize when we're wrong
- Learning to share faith and prayer with our spouse

These types of behaviors can take sacrifice—of time or our comfort. But by acting differently, we build a different kind of marriage: one filled with deep respect, passionate romance and unbridled joy! We teach these skills in Every Day in Love! Register now: www.archkck.org/everyday

Prayer for Priests

*O Jesus, our great High Priest,
 Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priests.
 Give them a deep faith
 a bright and firm hope and a burning love
 which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life.
 In their loneliness, comfort them
 In their sorrows, strengthen them
 In their frustrations, point out to them that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show them that they are needed by the Church,
 they are needed by souls,
 they are needed for the work of redemption.
 O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your sons who are close to you because of their priestly ordination, and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs them so much.
 Be their comfort, be their joy, be their strength, and especially help them to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen*

~FAITH~ FAMILY~ COMMUNITY~

Father Joe gets a special visitor from India!

Father Varghese Madan from Father Joe's home parish in India was in the States this week and came to visit Father Joe.

Father Madan was a classmate of Father Joe's father, and when Father Joe was an altar boy he served mass for him. Father Madan enjoyed his visit here and celebrated daily mass with Father Joe.

What a special visit!
