

Solemnity of the Holy Trinity

June 11, 2017

From the Pastor

Dear parishioners,

As you go on summer vacations, please keep in mind to keep up your regular offertory donations. In the summer, the offertory is often lower as people go away; however, our expenses, ministry and mission keeps going. Thank you for all that you contribute in time, talent and treasure for SFX!

I wanted to highlight an update on our Manor House. Please see the bulletin insert for some of the latest news. In addition, I wanted to mention that on June 2nd, a group of parishioners under the supervision of Drew Dowdell worked a long day on our continuing steps that helps to stabilize and preserve the Manor House. Three fire place hearths were shored up and the basement plywood window covers were replaced with critter proof and wire screen. By opening up the basement air flow, this will help decrease damp problems in the basement walls. A big thank you to everyone that worked on the house, especially thank you to Drew Dowdell, Joe Bowes, John Bourdon, Mike DeManss and George Matisick for their work on that day. Some of the next steps later this summer will be a fire place repair and some repointing of outside bricks.

As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity today, let us ask for God, in the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, to continue to guide us in our journey of faith. And, may we give thanks by how we serve Him and our neighbors by our lives of discipleship.

God bless, Fr. Dan
