

Church Healing Commission Membership Diocese of Pittsburgh

Jennifer Antkowiak is an Emmy-award winning TV news anchor who was previously with KDKA-TV. She is also an author and has been involved in establishing a health education practice and stress management programs through her private practice, Jennifer Productions.

John Aupperle, Ph.D. is a retired Senior Pastor from the Baldwin Community United Methodist Church in the South Hills of Pittsburgh. He was Chairman of The Higher Education division of the United Methodist Church in Western Pennsylvania, and he was co-founder and Chairman of United Methodist Ministries in Higher Education in the state of Pennsylvania. He is on the faculty at Saint Vincent College, lecturing on organizational ethics.

Emily Belchick serves as the Director of Youth Ministry in the parish grouping of White Oak/East McKeesport/Versailles. Prior to becoming active in church ministry, she spent twenty years in public education as a teacher in elementary education in the East Allegheny School District and in the Frederick County, Maryland public school system. She is highly recognized for her skills building successful youth ministry programs.

Sherry Cherry is the Safe Environment Coordinator for Holy Spirit Parish in Lawrence County. In this role, for over ten years she has supported her parishes in maintaining a safe environment for children.

Michael Daniels is the Superintendent of Schools for the Canon-McMillan School District, and has been serving in this position for the past eight years. During his twenty plus year tenure in the school district, he served as Assistant Superintendent, Special Education Director and School Psychologist.

James M. Doerfler is a practicing attorney in the Pittsburgh office of a global international law firm. He is a member of Saint Sebastian Parish and currently serves on the building committee. He has been an active member of his parish and is devoted to the cause of Catholic education.

Thomas Lynch is a retired law enforcement officer who spent over twenty years as a special agent for the FBI, locally and globally. He led multiple task force investigations that targeted violent crimes and major offenders. His initial entry into law enforcement was working with the Pennsylvania State Police.

Patricia Mazar resides in Allegheny County and serves as the Senior Administrator for the Office of Research Oversight, the compliance and regulatory office at Georgetown University Medical Center. She has served as a consultant to the federal government Office of Research Integrity and has taught health and wellness programs for Georgetown University Medical Center.

Pastor Jill McGregor serves as Pastor of Christ Our Savior's Lutheran Parish in Beaver County. She received a Master of Divinity degree from Trinity Lutheran Seminary and was ordained in 2008. Prior to being called into ministry she held various positions in the food and agriculture sector.

Sister Rita Murillo, CSJ is a religious sister with the Community of the Sisters of Saint Joseph (Baden) and a civil lawyer, working as a public defender in the Child Division of Criminal Courts in Allegheny County. She has a long-standing legal practice specializing as an advocate for children.

Jenna Rowles-Romito, LPC, NCC, MA is a licensed professional counselor who has worked in various outpatient mental health, family therapy and domestic violence non-profit organizations for seventeen years. She is a skilled negotiator and has spent a significant amount of time dedicated to Family Court Mediation in Allegheny County. She currently is in private practice.

Tracy Walnoha is the Executive Director of Watchful Shepherd in Washington County. This non-profit agency provides a voice for children and families who are experiencing issues with domestic violence. The organization supports families through in-home services. Tracy serves children suffering from all types of abuse issues to provide the support they need.