

Inter-Faith Prayer Service Child Abuse Prevention

April 4, 2017

1:30 p.m.

Lawn of Archbishop's Residence

Corner of S. Carrollton and Walmsley Ave., New Orleans

April is Prevent Child Abuse Awareness Month. To bring attention to the issue of child abuse in our communities and to increase awareness of what we as people of faith can do as individuals and together to prevent child abuse, New Orleans Archbishop Gregory Aymond will lead an Interfaith Prayer Service to pray for the safety of all children. Special guests include:

Islamic School of Greater New Orleans

Jewish Community Day School

St. Rita Catholic School, New Orleans

Children of the Sikh Community of New Orleans

Following the prayer service, students will be invited to “plant” blue pinwheels around the lawn in partnership with Prevent Child Abuse Louisiana.

