

Sponsored by the Office Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, Archdiocese of New Orleans

An Ecumenical Reflection
2017: 500 Years of the Reformation

What was Martin Luther thinking in 1517?
Why is that still important for Catholics and Protestants today?

Rev. Dr. Joy Blaylock, Presenter

Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church

400 Westchester Pl, Slidell, LA

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

Evening Prayer at 6:00 PM in Church,
followed by presentation in the Church Hall

“I fell in love with the history of the Church, the truth of broken people striving to love God.”

Rev. Dr. Joy Blaylock, a Mobile, AL, native, obtained her Doctorate in Theology at the Catholic University of America, Washington, DC; Priest in Charge at Redeemer Episcopal Church (ECUSA), Mobile, AL, ordained Lutheran Pastor; wife to Roy, Mom to Gabe, teaches systematic theology as an adjunct at Spring Hill College.