

You Are Called!

Witnessing with Joy in Church Communications

Wednesday, May 31, 2017

8:30 am to 3:30 pm

St. Mary's Dominican High School

7701 Walmsley Ave., New Orleans

As we continue to work towards achieving the goals of the Ninth General Synod of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, all parish clergy, religious and laity responsible for communicating the good work and necessary details of parish life are invited to attend the 2nd Annual Parish Communicators Workshop.

The day will begin with a welcome and prayer service with Archbishop Gregory Aymond, and the daylong workshop will feature a keynote address titled, The Mission is ME! Presented by Very Rev. David Caron, O.P., Vicar for Evangelization for the Archdiocese of New Orleans. This year we are offering breakout sessions for those seeking to develop specific skills for parish communications including:

Basic Writing for Church Communications

Social Media Start-up and Management

Website Content Management

Stewardship Communications

All participants will have the opportunity to meet representatives of eCatholic!

Learn more about the archdiocesan-wide website initiative by clicking here.

Continental breakfast, lunch and snacks will be served. There is no cost to attend but registration is requested.

To register, email Maddy Thibodeaux in the Office of Communications at mthibodeaux@arch-no.org or call (504) 596-3029 by May 15, 2017.

