Our Sin and the Virtues that Cure Them with Kate Theriot

October 25, 2017

Kate will discuss how each of us has an underlying sin that seeps into all of the adversity and conflict in our lives. Participants will explore each of the ways we sin finding their original sin and learn how to put it in remission.

What are You Waiting For? with Sr. Pat Thomas, OP

December 12, 2017

Advent is a time of anticipation, but do we really know what it is that we are awaiting? This time away from the usual holiday craziness will ask us to look at the real things we are waiting for in our lives.

Resting in God's Presence with Sr. Mary Noel, OP

January 23, 2018

You have made us for yourself and our hearts are restless until the rest in you (St. Augustine). The day will be dedicated to exploring the presence of God in our lives. Who is this God in who our heart finds rest? And how do we let ourselves be found by God?
