From the Pastor

Dear parishioners,

Despite falling on a Saturday, December 8, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a day of precept, or holy day of Obligation, in the United States of America. We will have a special Mass schedule for the 7th and 8th in order to harmonize with the Saturday vigil schedule: Dec. 7: 6pm at Holy Family, 7:30pm Bilingual at Saint Paul; Dec. 8: 9am Holy Family and 11am at Saint Paul. Please note that attendance at the 5pm vigil Mass for Sunday at Holy Family on December 8 cannot be used to fulfill both obligations, i.e. that of the holy day and that of Sunday. That said, it would be possible to fulfill both obligations by attending the Saturday vigil and an additional Mass at Saint Paul on the following day.

It is true that Mass attendance on holy days of obligation is a Church discipline. Take a look at Matthew 16:13-20 and 18:15-18 if you would like more information about the power Christ gave to the Church to bind and to loose.

Attendance at Holy Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation normally binds under pain of mortal sin. Poor health or other serious reasons may excuse, but otherwise every Catholic should be at Mass on these days. Far from being a merely human precept, the obligation of Christians to gather to worship Almighty God on Sundays comes from Scripture. From the time of the apostles, Christians have interpreted the third commandment (keep holy the Sabbath) as applying to Sunday, the day of the Resurrection. The letter to the Hebrews is very clear on this point, "And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries." (Heb. 10:24-27) I hope to see you at Mass at least twice between Dec. 7 and Dec. 9.

To Jesus through Mary,

Fr. Christopher

We would not expect a car, or a house heating/air conditioning system to run for years without any servicing, so why do we expect our marriage relationship to keep running smoothly without a little maintenance? The Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend gives married couples the tools to keep their relationship in top running condition. Future Marriage Encounter Weekends will be at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House, Indianapolis, from 26-28 April and from 1-3 November 2019, and at Mount Saint Francis Centre for Spirituality, New Albany, from 1-3 February and from 16-18 August 2019.

TOUR OF HOMES UPDATE : Final figures are in for the tour with a profit of $3400 . We realize this wouldn't be possible without the generosity of the parishioners and business community. We sincerely appreciate everyone who also helped the day of the tour . It takes over 80 people to make the tour run smoothly so our volunteers are sincerely thanked. If you would like to be part of the planning of next year's tour please call Carol Hamilton at 661-6188 or hammy59@gmail.com to volunteer . We will start working on 2019 Tour next May. Special thanks to this years planning committee Mary Eckerle, Judy Fitzgerald, Elaine Greene, Sandy Leighty, Lisa Kriegbaum, Sharon Wilson, Debbie Dailey and Anne Devitt.

About RCIA? Those deciding to join the Catholic Church come from many backgrounds; unbaptized, baptized, those having little or no faith training, those having faith training but in another Christian tradition, or another religion altogether. The "tie that binds" them all is a desire for spiritual fulfillment and communion with the Catholic Church and Her people.

Today's second reading reminds us that the sacrifice of Christ frees us from sin and makes us a royal nation of priests in the service of God. How am I using my gifts to serve God and others?

The Book of the Dead

is set on a stand at the back of church for the month of November. Parishioners are invited to write in the names of the dead. The pages stay in the book from year to year, although it's permissible if you choose to annually stand before the book and call to mind your remembered dead while writing down their names.

Decorate the Church

Yes, that time of the year is coming soon. Bring your artistic skills; your ability to carry stuff; your willingness to climb tall ladders; and that most treasured skill of cleaning up! Put these dates in/on your calendar.

Fri. Nov. 30th 6pm - We need to hang the greens, build the Advent wreath, and change the hymnals.

Sun. Dec. 16th 6pm - Note change - We will build the empty stable as we wait for God to come in human flesh.

Sun. Dec. 23 6pm - We decorate with joy to celebrate God-with-us.

Sun. Jan. 13 6pm - time to put away the splendor of the Christmas season and restore our lives and our church to the Ordinary...

Bring your neighbors, your strong & willing kids and let us together care for our common home.
