From the Pastor

Dear parishioners,

I wanted to share a bit about my involvement at Saint Paul School. Although the school is located on the campus of Saint Paul, Holy Family parishioners who attend may do so at the parishioner rate.

The highlight of my involvement in the school is celebrating Mass with the students on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Most of the students attend Mass twice a week, which is double what I experienced in my eight years of Catholic school in Logansport! I also enjoy having the chance to teach from twenty to thirty minutes in every classroom on most Thursdays. Due to a crazy month before Christmas break, I had to suspend visits. I am happy to have resumed teaching in January. These classroom visits make me appreciate the work that our teachers do in helping to educate the children in the school. Another very important aspect of my involvement in the school has to do with administration. I meet with the principal usually twice a month to touch base on the state of the school and to provide support as I am able. I also attend the monthly school advisory board meetings where we discuss ways to clarify and advance the mission of Saint Paul School.

It is no secret that enrollment is down at Saint Paul School. Smaller numbers at Sunday Mass correspond to lower enrollment in the school. The most important way for us to raise enrollment at the school is to focus on inviting more young families to Sunday Mass, and to Baptizing their children. My hope is, that we can increase enrollment enough, that per student costs are such that we could expand to the eighth grade (and find an arrangement for middle school sports).

To Jesus through Mary,

Fr. Christopher

Reflections for Ordinary Time

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

17 February 2019

Good-attitudes and bad-attitudes. Jesus speaks the same words to Kinsfolk, town folk, and foreigners alike: four blessed and four woes. The blessed are those in need of works of mercy. So are we. The woeful are those who need to do mercy works. Note well: they are not cursed; they are reminded.

- ◆ Let me review the works of mercy.
- ◆ Even if I think I have only a little, what can I give and do for another?
- ◆ What will I let someone do for me?

CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY

- ◆ Feed the hungry
- ◆ Give drink to the thirsty
- ◆ Shelter the homeless
- ◆ Clothe the naked
- ◆ Visit the sick
- ◆ Visit the prisoners
- ◆ Bury the dead
- ◆ Give alms to the poor
- ◆ Care of our Common Home

SPIRITUAL WORKS OF MERCY

- ◆ Counseling the doubtful
- ◆ Instructing the ignorant
- ◆ Admonishing the sinner
- ◆ Comforting the sorrowful
- ◆ Forgiving injuries
- ◆ Bearing wrongs patiently
- ◆ Praying for the living and the dead
- ◆ Caring for our Common Home

Dear St. Paul,

On behalf of the Board of Directors for meals on Wheels Marion Area, I want to thank you for your contribution to our organization of the amount of $998.35 on December.

This donation could not have come at a better time! We have several clients who are on fixed incomes and are shut in. With the rising cost of everyday living some are really struggling financially, with paying the heat bill, medication and payments on their home.

On behalf of the Meals on wheels Board, I cannot THANK YOU all enough.

We continue to have a need to deliver meals to those that are not able to cook their own meals. With your generous donation, we will be able to continue to deliver to those who are less fortunate.

Again, thank you so much for thinking of us.

Sincerely

Cathy Lee, Director

Meals on Wheels, Marion Area

We're excited to announce that on Ash Wednesday, March 6, the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology is launching their newest Journey Through Scripture study, Genesis to Jesus!

This is the study that started it all fifteen years ago. It presents the whole sweep of salvation history, and helps you make sense of the Bible, literally, from Genesis to Jesus. This will compliment the previous lessons we covered at St. Paul parish last summer and fall.

Sign up online so you can watch the videos on your own. And if you want, the workbook and text book are available at the St. Paul Center website as well as at Amazon.

Note: we will NOT be conducting this at St. Paul parish until after Lent when the DVDs will be available.

About RCIA?

As our Catechumens and Candidates continue their conversion to full communion with Jesus Christ and His Church, join them in praying:

Act of Faith: O my God, I firmly believe that you are one God in three divine Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I believe that your divine Son became man and died for our sins and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches because you, who are eternal truth and wisdom, have revealed them, and you can neither deceive nor be deceived. In this faith I intend to live and die. Amen.

Act of Hope: O Lord God, I hope by your grace for the pardon of all my sins and after life here to gain eternal happiness because you have promised it who are infinitely powerful, faithful, kind, and merciful. In this hope I intend to live and die. Amen.

Act of Love: O Lord God, I love you above all things and I love my neighbor for your sake because you are the highest, infinite and perfect good, worthy of all my love. In this love I intend to live and die. Amen.
