From the Pastor

Dear parishioners,

In the United States it has come to be expected that one normally has weekends off from work and some vacation time. A priest is expected to work at least six days a week with no more than 30 days of vacation time. This means that the rare priest who takes the maximum amount of time away from active ministry still works 22 days more than someone who takes no vacation time and works twenty-two Saturdays.

This week, all of the priests of the diocese have our annual priest convocation in Brown County, which means that I will be out of the parish from Monday afternoon until Friday evening for Mass. Priest convocation is not vacation time, but rather a time when the priests of the diocese gather together for continuing professional formation and the opportunity to get to know each other better. A priest's friends are, as rule, other priests. I look forward to convocation as a time to reconnect with priests. If I have not spent time with some of the brothers since the last convocation, it is a reminder that I need to be more intentional about taking time away from active ministry to spend with them for the sake of mutual support. Our continuing professional formation this year will involve a speaker on evangelization and time reviewing the draft of the diocesan pastoral plan.

Our summer seminarian, Mr. Jordan Boone, will be leading communion services on Tuesday through Thursday in lieu of Mass.

To Jesus through Mary,

Fr. Christopher

The Ascension of the Lord

Sunday, June 2 2019

Acts 1:1-11. Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9. Ephesians 1:17-23. OR Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23. Luke 24:46-53.

Going but not leaving. There is a paradox, a mystery, really, today. Jesus announces his going into heaven – but blesses his followers before leaving. This blessing clothes them – and us – in garments of Baptism so that we may witness to all things Christic in this world and in the next. This blessing clothes us in Him.

- ♦ Let me name three ways that I know Christ is active still in my life?
 - ♦ How will I sing of this Good News?
- ♦ What will I do to bring this blessing to another?

Now Hiring! St. Paul Preschool is looking for a lead teacher for our 4 year-old Prekindergarten class. We are looking for applicants that have a CDA in childhood development or a degree in early childhood education. Candidates should be able to plan and implement lessons that include development of the whole child (academic, physical, emotional, etc.) and love working with young children. The position is full-time during the school year (August through May) and teachers must meet all of the state and diocesan requirements for employment. St. Paul School is also looking for an instructional aide for our Second Grade class. This is a part-time position of about 19 hours a week that also includes helping in the cafeteria during lunch times. Please contact the principal, Becky Spitznagel, at 765-662-2883 or bspitznagel@stpaulcatholicmarion.com if interested in either position.

Communion of the Sick and Homebound

A Prayer for our Graduates

Let us Pray..

On this day of new beginnings Lord,
We place our class of 2019 in your hands.
We know Lord that you love them.
We know that you will always be close to them.
We know that you will continue to inspire them to do great things.

They are ready Lord,
They are ready to take the next step.
They will teach, and heal, and inspire by their art,
They will counsel and invest and explore your wonders of nature.
They will design and engineer great structures.
They will work for the common good in politics and government service and all kinds of community service.

All of them will love,
Some will marry and have children,
Some will serve your people as Priests and religious.

Their parting from High School is bittersweet
But we all know it is time and they are ready.

Bless them,
Bless their families,
Bless their parents.
May this day of celebration remain always in our hearts
And serve to remind us all of your loving divine providence.
We ask all of these things through Christ our Lord
Amen.
