From the Pastor

Dear parishioners,

As I mentioned in the homily last week, we are in the midst of the exciting process of the Uniting in Heart pastoral planning process for our diocese. On June 6 at the priest convocation in Brown County, the priests of diocese received an embargoed presentation on what changes that we can expect. I am not yet at liberty to discuss specifics. This information will be made public at deanery meetings throughout the diocese during the week of June 23. In our deanery the meeting will be at Saint Mary in Muncie from 9 to 11am on Thursday, June 27. I urge as many parishioners as possible to attend. We will be processing this information in the parishes in early July. I will say that on a general level I am very happy with the fruits of this process. The diocese has provided a broad framework for very necessary changes in how we use resources and left the specific implementation to the local level, which is as it should be.

We have seen remarkable growth in our parish cluster in the past year. Our Mass attendance is up approximately 25% relative to October 2017. Sunday collection at Saint Paul is up almost 8%, which has helped us avoid having to cut parish staff in order to have a balanced budget. Baptisms in the parish cluster have doubled. We have tremendous momentum already and I am very convinced that we will be able to keep it going. Your engagement in the parish-level process will be crucial for the success of this pastoral plan and a brighter future for Saint Paul and Holy Family. As with all change, there will be opportunities and sacrifices. Unlike much of the changes we have seen in Grant County in the past decades, this change will be positive if we approach it with an open heart.

To Jesus through Mary,

Fr. Christopher

HELP

The naked earth left after construction is being washed down the incline and onto our sidewalks. No one wants to walk in slippery mud or look at ugly rutted dirt - - - SO Are you a landscaper? Does your lawn qualify for yard of the month awards? Can you prepare the dirt, plant some grass seed and water the area? Call Maria at the office, or just do it. Your parish family will thank you.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
June 16, 2019

Proverbs 8:22-31. Psalm 8:4-5, 6-7, 8-9. Romans 5:1-5. John 16:12-15.

Giving glory to God. In the daily prayer of the Church – the five to seven times for prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours (or Divine Office) – every psalm and canticle that is sung ends with this doxology:

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen.

Oh, that every word from our own mouths would in big and little ways give God glory!

- ♦ What first words will I speak at waking to sing the praise of God?
- ♦ How will I give thanks to Father-Son-Spirit throughout the day?
- ♦ What last words will I speak at bedtime?
