Corpus et Sanguinus Christi Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

Corpus et Sanguinus Christi (Body and Blood of Christ) is a Eucharistic solemnity, or better, the solemn commemoration of the institution of that Sacrament. It is, moreover, the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, Who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure. Holy Thursday, assuredly, marks the anniversary of the institution, but the commemoration of the Lord's passion that very night suppresses the rejoicing proper to the occasion. Today's observance, therefore, accents the joyous aspect of Holy Thursday. The Church encourages the faithful to receive Holy Communion under both species.

Sisters of the Holy Family Request for Prayers

The Sisters of the Holy Family have asked for our prayers for the success of their General Chapter (Chapter of Affairs and Chapter of Elections) which will be held June 11 through 22. The General Chapter is a time for reflection on many aspects of their mission, including the adaptation of their ministries to the needs of the world today, especially for the poor and vulnerable of society. It is also a time for them to discern the direction in which the Holy Spirit is leading them. Your prayers are sincerely appreciated.

A Stewardship Moment

*Stewardship
A way of living*

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." – MARK 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself to us completely for our salvation. He offers us the chance to drink from His cup. In the Eucharist, we meet Christ personally and, if we listen to Him, we know what drinking from His cup means our own sacrifice – giving up some of our time, talent and treasure to do His work on earth.
