PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION: Peter's Pence derives its name from an ancient custom, in ninth-century England. King Alfred the Great collected money, a "pence," from landowners as financial support for the Pope. Today, the Peter's Pence Collection supports the Pope's philanthropy by giving the Holy Father the means to provide emergency assistance to those in need because of natural disaster, war, oppression, and disease. Pope Francis, during the 2016 Jubilee Year of Mercy has called each of us to be a witness of charity. He encouraged us to "open our eyes and see the misery of the world, the wounds of our brothers and sisters who are denied their dignity, and let us recognize that we are compelled to heed their cry for help" This collection unites us in solidarity to the Holy See and its works of charity to those in need. Your generosity allows the Pope Francis to respond to our suffering brothers and sisters.

SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST: A little history of St. John the Baptist. John the Baptist, according to all four Gospels, was the precursor of Jesus Christ, was born in Judaea, the son of the priest Zechariah and Elizabeth, cousin of Mary, the mother of Jesus. John was a Nazarite from birth and prepared for his mission by years of self-discipline in the desert. At about the age of 30, he went into the country around the River Jordan preaching penance to prepare for the imminent coming of the Messiah. He baptized penitents with water as a symbol of the baptism of the Holy Spirit that was to come. With the baptism of Jesus, his office as precursor was accomplished, and his ministry came to a close soon afterwards. John angered Herod Antipas, the Judaeen ruler, by denouncing him for marrying Herodias, the wife of his half-brother Herod, and was imprisoned (see Luke 3:1-20). At the request of Salome, daughter of Herodias and Herod, John was beheaded (see Matthew 14:3-11). In art, John the Baptist is represented as wearing a garment made of hair and often carries a staff and scroll with the words "Ecc Agnus Dei", or "Behold the Lamb of God", a reference to John 1:29. <http://mb-soft.com/believe/txo/johnbap.htm>

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS: How much you have has nothing to do with generosity to God. If you don't give of your time, talent, and treasure with what you already have, you most likely won't do it if you have more. You need not redo your entire Will to make a provision for a charitable bequest to (parish). Simply prepare a Codicil (a written change or addition), have it witnessed and attached to your Will. Add a gift to your parish in your Will.

STEWARDSHIP SUMMARY: St. Paul reminds us in the second reading that Christ died "so that those who live might live no longer for themselves." What we give to and do for others, we give to and do for Jesus!

VOCATION VIEWS: John was sent to prepare the world for the coming of the Messiah. At the end of every Mass, we too are sent to prepare his way. May our lives follow the example of John that we may always point to Jesus.

The Glory of God is the human person fully alive! And the life of the human person is the vision of God. ~St. Irenaeus

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

"But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren..."(Luke 1:7) God said to Zechariah, "Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son." (Luke 1:13) Perhaps you long for a child.

PARENTING POINTERS

Discipline does not mean punishment. The purpose of discipline is to help your child learn to become responsible. Allow your child to experience the consequences of their actions. If a child chooses not to study for a test, she will get a poor grade. If he leaves his bicycle out in the yard, it may get rusty or stolen. If she does not set her alarm, she may miss the school bus. These may seem like hard lessons, but better to learn them when the stakes are low than when losing a job or having an untimely pregnancy might be the consequence www.SusanVogt.net

Financial Corner: The monthly and YTD totals do not include special collections such as God's Share since that money is forwarded to the Diocese. "YTD Need" is based on slightly increased 2015-16 total expenses (less fundraiser expenses) and calculated on a weekly basis (SA-NT $1542/wk, SA-M $2440/wk). Thank you for your continued time, talent, and finances that you share with your parishes.
