RESPECT LIFE: For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be. Psalm 139:13-16

DID THE COURT FIND THAT LIFE DOESN'T BEGIN UNTIL BIRTH?: No. It argued that uses of the word "person" in the Constitution do not seem to include the unborn. Then, citing wide disagreement as to when life begins, the Court said it "need not resolve" this difficult question. Instead of considering scientific evidence that life begins at conception, or even allowing legislatures to protect those who have never been proven to be anything but human beings, the court decided to treat unborn children merely as "potential life" – and to prevent the people and their elected representatives from determining otherwise.

NOVENA PRAYER: May a change in the U.S. Supreme Court move our nation closer to the day when every human being is protected in law and welcomed in life.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT: Use what talents you possess: The woods would be very silent if no birds sang except those that sang the best. We have drawn spiritual and academic life from our parish and Catholic schools. What return will we make of these gifts? As the good steward of the Gospel, shall we give to God sufficient return for our gifts? Consider a life-culminating gift through your Will.

STEWARDSHIP SUMMARY: "Those who seek the Lord want for no good thing," says today's Psalm. But in the second reading St. Paul reminds us that, thus blessed by the Lord, the good steward should "give thanks to God the Father always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."

VOCATION VIEWS: Because we have been called, formed and nourished by Christ, our actions must be in accord with the great gifts we have received. To strive for holiness every day of our lives is to live in accord with the promises made at Baptism. (Eph. 5:15)

MARRIAGE MOMENTS: Two questions to consider when you disagree with your beloved: 1. Tell me about what you are seeing that you think I might be missing. 2. What are you most concerned about or worried might happen?

PARENTING POINTERS: Sometimes children can teach us deep truths. What deeper truth have you learned from your child this week?
