Reflections on Gospel Reading as it Applies to Stewardship

Jesus confirmed to His Apostles how trust in God was paramount with His instructions to them in today's Gospel from St. Mark. Jesus understood full well that if His apostles did not trust God and did not convey that trust to others, they could not effectively tell others to trust in God. That is why He told them to travel lightly, because that assured that they had to trust in God for everything. Our belief as Catholics is that Jesus' Apostles did exactly what He told them to do. At the same time, though, this can be quite the challenge for even the most committed and active Catholic. We can hear Jesus' Word over and over, but until we actually follow it and live it out through stewardship, we are not truly fulfilling our calling. That is why we say that stewardship requires action on our part. We can not only talk the talk. We must also walk the walk. We need to show others that we understand it and embrace it by how we live our lives. As stewards, we must vividly demonstrate that we completely and wholeheartedly trust in God.

Adoration

Communication is so important in a healthy relationship. Four great skills for communication are listening, speaking, reading and writing. Why not stop by for a visit on July 20th and work on your relationship with Jesus during Adoration? The length of your visit is far less important than the intent of your visit. You will be Blessed. Call or text Carole Fay at 706-889-0727 for more information.

Magnificat Prayer Breakfast

All women are invited to the MAGNIFICAT PRAYER BREAKFAST on Aug. 4, 2018, from 9:30 a.m.-12 p.m. at Holy Cross Church, 3773 Chamblee Tucker Road, Atlanta. Guest speaker will be Sister Beatrice, a Georgia physician called to religious life as a hermit. Reservations, required in advance, are $20. Please register online at <https://conta.cc/2N72eej> or mail check, payable to Magnificat Joyful Visitation, by July 28 to: Debbie DuPont, 315 Rose Court, SW, Lilburn, GA 30047. Check in at the door. Contact Debbie DuPont at 770-696-6216.

A Big Thank You to Our Youth

Our Youth recently went to a disabled woman's home to help her pack for a move to Seattle to be with family. Her husband has recently died and she was alone. Our youth went to her home and packed her things for her. She left a message on the phone saying how wonderful they were, so respectful and friendly. She said we should be proud of the youth our parish is putting out in the community. We all agree!

Communion Services

There will be Communion Services on Monday and Tuesday of this week.
