A sincere and heartfelt "Thank You" to Mary Myatt

Mary had informed me several months ago that she would be retiring from the duties of our parish secretary on the first of April. We regret this decision as she has been a wonderful presence in the office for these many years, firstly, for Fr. Cerank and also since I have been pastor.

Mary's talents in the office have been invaluable over these years. She was crucial in helping me to adjust to two new parishes when I arrived and has supported me not only as your pastor but as a dear friend in these years.

I think all of us would agree that when entering the office for business or just to stop by for a visit it was a friend we knew would greet us and care for our needs. Thank you Mary!

I admit I haven't planned anything to mark her departure simply because I know that she would prefer me not to. But I did want to sneak this into the bulletin this week so that all of you would know that her last day will be Monday. For those of you who would like to wish her the best on her retirement from the office please let her know.

We pray for you, Mary, to have the best of retirement and to also know that when you are able to stop by your old stomping grounds that you are always welcome. Thank you for all you have done!
