 This month, the book club group has chosen to read, The Gospel of Ruth, by Carolyn Custis James. The book vests every woman's life with kingdom purposes and frees us to embrace wholeheartedly God's calling, regardless of our circumstances or season of life.

This story of two women who have lost everything contains a profound message: God created women not to live in the shadowy margins of men or the past, but to emerge as courageous activists for his kingdom. Join us at Millie Hynes home at 2:00 PM on May 30. For more information, call 568-1140.

Regarding our catholic faith, do you "walk the talk?" Do your actions reflect what it means to be a good disciple. Are you an active participant at Sunday Mass? Are you joyful when participating in parish ministry? Do you give gratefully and generously with your financial support to your parish and other Church needs? If not, it's not too late to start!

Scripture Class

Our Scripture Group meets after the coffee hour every Sunday in the rectory. New members are always welcome. For more information, call Mike Basta at 326-18304.

Easter Lilly plants are available in the sacristy on a first-come, first-served basis. These plants can be used in an outdoor garden, and should bloom again next year.

Life Principles Academy
Saturday, May 19
9 AM to 2 PM
STM PACC

This is a half-day training event that equips participants to intelligently and effectively communicate human dignity and respect for human life using ten fundamental principals of happiness, logic, ethics, and justice.

Boxed lunch provided. You will leave with a free packet of materials from Healing the Culture and maybe a silver tongue. For a closer look at the program and to register online go to

<http://lifeprinciplesacademy.com/>

Space is limited to only 100 people, so register soon.

Pentecost is a few short weeks away. The change from the Easter season to Pentecost will take place on Saturday, May 19 at 10:00 AM. Volunteers are invited to help make the changes, which should be completed before noon. As always, thank you in advance to all who help with this important work!

Please join your fellow parishioners for coffee and donuts following Mass
