Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord:

Recently Pope Francis spoke on the Gospel passage from Saint Mark which we all heard last weekend (Mk.6:30-34). The Pope stated that the intention of Jesus to go away for a while and rest with the disciples could not be fulfilled because the crowd had guessed where they were headed and got there before them. The Pope's teaching is this: "The same can happen today. At times we are not able to complete our projects because something urgent and unexpected occurs, disrupting our plans and requiring flexibility and being available to the needs of others.

"In these situations, we are called to imitate what Jesus did—as He landed he saw a great throng, and He had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd (v.34). With this brief sentence, the Evangelist offers us a flash of singular intensity, taking a snapshot of the eye of the Divine Master and His teaching. ...The gaze of Jesus is not a neutral one—or worse, a cold and detached one because Jesus looks with the eyes of the heart. And His heart is so tender and filled with compassion, that He is able to understand even the most hidden needs of people....It is God's attitude and predisposition toward mankind and its history. Jesus appears as the fulfillment of God's concern and care for His people.

"Because Jesus was moved when He saw all those people in need of guidance and help, we would now expect Him to perform some miracles. Instead, He began teaching them many things. This is the first bread that the Messiah offers to the starving and lost crowd: the bread of the Word. We all need the Word of truth to guide and illuminate our way. Without the truth which is Christ Himself, it is not possible to find the right direction in life. When we distance ourselves from Jesus and His love, we become lost and life is transformed into disappointment and dissatisfaction. With Jesus on our side, we can proceed with confidence and overcome all trials, advancing in love toward God and neighbor. Jesus gave Himself for others, thus becoming an example of love and service for each of us."

I believe the Holy Father is teaching us what Saint Mother Teresa taught: Look for Jesus in the distressing disguise of the poor; feed Him through your loving acts of kindness towards the less fortunate; comfort Him in the afflicted ones you meet and allow them to die with the dignity of knowing they are loved and honored as a worthy member of humanity. It's often not an easy task to undertake, but the fulfillment of its promise is out of this world!

Peace be with you, Monsignor

DESDE EL PASTOR

Queridas Hermanas y Hermanos en el Señor:

Recientemente, el Papa Francisco habló sobre el pasaje evangélico de San Marcos, que todos escuchamos el fin de semana pasado (Marcos 6: 30-34). El Papa declaró que la intención de Jesús de irse por un tiempo y descansar con los discípulos no se podía cumplir porque la multitud había adivinado hacia dónde se dirigían y llegaron allí antes que ellos. La enseñanza del Papa es esta: "Lo mismo puede suceder hoy. A veces no podemos completar nuestros proyectos porque ocurre algo urgente e inesperado, interrumpiendo nuestros planes y requiriendo flexibilidad y estando disponibles para las necesidades de los demás.

"En estas situaciones, estamos llamados a imitar lo que hizo Jesús: al desembarcar, vio una gran multitud, y tuvo compasión de ellos, porque eran como ovejas sin pastor (v.34). Con esta breve oración, el Evangelista nos ofrece un destello de singular intensidad, tomando una instantánea del ojo del Maestro Divino y Su enseñanza ... La mirada de Jesús no es neutral, o peor, fría y distante porque Jesús mira con los ojos del corazón Y su corazón es tan tierno y lleno de compasión, que es capaz de entender incluso las necesidades más ocultas de las personas Es la actitud y la predisposición de Dios hacia la humanidad y su historia. Jesús aparece como el cumplimiento de la preocupación y el cuidado de Dios por su pueblo.

"Debido a que Jesús se conmovió cuando vio a todas esas personas que necesitan guía y ayuda, ahora esperaríamos que realizara algunos milagros. En cambio, Él comenzó a enseñarles muchas cosas. Este es el primer pan que el Mesías ofrece a la muchedumbre hambrienta y perdida: el pan de la Palabra. Todos necesitamos la Palabra de verdad para guiar e iluminar nuestro camino. Sin la verdad que es Cristo mismo, no es posible encontrar la dirección correcta en la vida. Cuando nos distanciamos de Jesús y su amor, nos perdemos y la vida se transforma en desilusión e insatisfacción. Con Jesús de nuestra parte, podemos proceder con confianza y superar todas las pruebas, avanzando en amor hacia Dios y hacia el prójimo. Jesús se dio a sí mismo por los demás, convirtiéndose así en un ejemplo de amor y servicio para cada uno de nosotros ".

Creo que el Santo Padre nos está enseñando lo que enseñó Santa Madre Teresa: Busque a Jesús en el angustioso disfraz de los pobres; alimentarlo a través de sus amorosos actos de bondad hacia los menos afortunados; Consíéntenlo en los afligidos que encuentren y permítales morir con la dignidad de saber que son amados y honrados como un digno miembro de la humanidad. A menudo no es una tarea fácil de realizar, ¡pero el cumplimiento de su promesa está fuera de este mundo!

La paz sea contigo, Monseñor
