TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In 1971, the Vatican Congregation for Divine Worship completed a survey of the presidents of the national liturgical commissions around the world. How were children doing in the liturgical reform? Probably to their surprise, the cardinals learned of special weekday Masses for children designed to teach them how to participate on Sunday, Masses with separate components for children. The decision was made quickly to develop adaptations for Masses where children were a majority of the assembly. Changes would include a simpler structure, understandable texts, a simplified Lectionary, more active participation, and most surprisingly, new Eucharistic Prayers. By 1973 the work was done, and with very specific advice from Pope Paul VI, including the need for two new Eucharistic Prayers, the Directory for Masses with Children was published on December 20, a timely Christmas gift for the children of the world.

The prayers are the first to be written fresh in a modern language--not Latin, but French and German--then translated into English, Italian, and Spanish. With a sense of caution, these new prayers were approved for three years, until 1977, but it soon became apparent that they had truly been embraced.

Do Not Conform Yourself to this Age

St Paul tells us, "Do not conform yourself to this age but ...discern...what is good and pleasing..."

Since Roe v. Wade, around 60 million innocent children have lost their God-given right to live. An entire class of persons, children in the womb, have been relegated to the status of "chattel", personal property, who can be disposed of by those more powerful than they.

They have no power to resist. They are subject to abuse and destruction by those with more power, namely the power of the State. They have no voice that can be heard except our own.

Without doubt, the killing of innocent children in the womb is the pre-eminent moral evil of our age.

It is for this reason that we must "not conform" to this grave injustice. As St Paul tells us, we must instead stand on the side of truth and justice and "what is good and pleasing to God". We must recognize what both medical science and natural justice tell us: children in the womb are human persons with an inalienable right to life.

Undoubtedly, the most important human rights issue of our age is to protect our "first neighbors" ----children in the womb. The womb is the "first home" of the whole human race and standing up for them is a matter of solidarity with our neighbor and love for the poor. We should not stand by while thousands of children every day are evicted and killed!

Our call (as St Paul reminds us) is to replace the current culture of death with a new culture of life and a civilization of love.

The 7th Annual Catholic Charities Gala will be held on October 21st, 2017. This evening will be a celebration of the tremendous impact Catholic Charities has on the community each day. Funds raised at this event will support the critical programs of Catholic Charities such as: Disaster Services, Emergency Assistance, Immigration Services, and Services in Support of the Family. Event information is available at www.CatholicCharitiesRaleigh.org/2017-Gala. For ticket or sponsorship information, please contact Katey Fithian at Kathryn.Fithian@raldioc.org.

The Diocese of Raleigh along with NC Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America has mutually agreed to commemorate the 500th anniversary of Reformation by worshiping together on October 27th at 7:00 p.m. at St Thomas More Church in Chapel Hill, NC. This Common Prayer service will be co-presided by Catholic Bishop Luis Rafael Zarama and Lutheran Bishop Tim Smith, and a Lutheran-Catholic combined choir will lead us in worshiping God. All fellow Catholics are invited to join Bishop Zarama, specially those Catholic-Lutheran couples and families that share their faith traditions on a daily basis. There are many ecumenical efforts at parish levels where Christians from various denominations bear witness to Christ by serving their local communities together, for them this is good time to pray together and to advance Christian unity.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 2006, en la plaza de Taos se erigió una estatua de bronce que conmemora al "cura de Taos", Antonio José Martínez, un sacerdote recordado como controversial ante varios gobiernos por defender a su pueblo.

Él fue sacerdote en Taos, Nuevo México cuando era territorio español, luego mexicano y finalmente cuando pasa a manos de EE. UU. Durante la época española y mexicana Antonio estableció escuelas para niños y niñas y fundó un seminario para preparar un clero nativo. En 1830 empezó a imprimir libros y estableció el primer periódico Nuevo Mexicano. De esta manera estableció Taos como un centro de educación.

En 1851 llegaron los representantes del gobierno estadounidense con la intención de "americanizar" a los nuevos mexicanos prohibiéndoles sus tradiciones declarando que eran ignorantes y supersticiosas.

Antonio José contradijo este movimiento convirtiendo su seminario en una escuela de leyes. Decía que el gobierno de EE. UU es un burro que debe ser montado por abogados. Muchos se opusieron a su obra pero él continuó luchando por su pueblo hasta su muerte en 1867. Su tumba lo declara: "La honra de su país".

No se conforme a la mentalidad de este siglo

San Pablo nos dice: "No se conformen a la mentalidad de este siglo ...pero traten de discernir lo que es bueno y agradable ..."

Desde la decisión Roe v Wade, alrededor de 60 millones de niños inocentes han perdido su derecho, dado por Dios, para vivir. Toda una clase de personas, los niños en el vientre materno, han sido relegados a la condición de "bien mueble", propiedad personal, que pueden ser eliminados por los que son más poderosos que ellos. No tienen poder para resistir. Están sujetas al abuso y la destrucción por los que tienen más poder, es decir, el poder del Estado. No tienen ninguna voz que se escuche, excepto la nuestra. Sin duda, el asesinato de niños inocentes en el vientre materno es el mal moral preeminente de nuestra era.

Es por esta razón que no debemos conformarnos con esta grave injusticia. Como nos dice San Pablo, tenemos que en vez, ponernos de pie del lado de la verdad y la justicia y de "lo que es bueno y agradable a Dios". Debemos reconocer lo que tanto la ciencia médica como la justicia natural nos dicen: los niños en el vientre de la madre son personas humanas con un derecho inalienable a la vida.

Sin duda, el tema más importante de los derechos humanos de nuestra época es el de proteger nuestros "primeros prójimos" ---- los niños en el vientre materno. El útero es la "primera casa" de toda la raza humana y la defensa de ellos es una cuestión de solidaridad con el prójimo y del amor por los pobres. No debemos permanecer impasibles mientras miles de niños cada día son desalojados y matados! Nuestro llamado (como San Pablo nos recuerda) es reemplazar la actual cultura de la muerte con una nueva cultura de la vida y de la civilización del amor.
