When Bishop David Ricken started the Wyoming School of Catholic Thought in the early years of his tenure in Cheyenne, he made a promise: participants "will be formed both spiritually and intellectually, which will enable them to play their part in a new Catholic Renaissance." Wyoming Catholic College is part of that Renaissance in the midst of a culture that has lost its way. This summer (the first of many to follow) we revive Bishop Ricken's inspired idea, this time on the theme of returning to our true homeland. Wyoming Catholic College faculty will lead a weeklong seminar from June 11-15, using film, poetry, philosophy, theology, and music to explore how artists and authors from Plato and the Bible to Dante and Shakespeare have used their talents to awaken the bittersweet consciousness of our human exile and to create the desire for a more permanent home. Accommodations, meals, and reading materials will be provided, and scholarships are available. Learn more at www.wyomingcatholic.org/WSCT.

SAVE THE DATE ~ August 13: Holy Rosary, St. Margaret's and St. Stephen's will have a picnic 2-4 pm followed by an outdoor Mass at 5 pm at St. Stephen's Mission. More info on what to bring as it gets closer.

Bishop-elect Steven Biegler will be ordained and installed as the 9th Bishop of the Diocese of Cheyenne on Monday, June, 5, 2017, Memorial of Saint Boniface, at 2pm MST at the Cheyenne Civic Center, 510 West 20th Street. Doors will open at 1pm. Seating is limited. Overflow will be at St. Mary's Catholic School, 2200 O'Neil Avenue, where the Mass will be able to be seen via livestream. For those not able to attend, a link for the livestream will be available on the Diocese of Cheyenne Website at <http://www.dioceseofcheyenne.org/> and aired live on EWTN.

The principal consecrator will be The Most Reverend Samuel Aquila, Archbishop of Denver, in the presence of The Most Reverend Christopher Pierre, Apostolic Nuncio to the United States.
