A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

Today's Gospel reading by Luke is often referred to as being part of the travel narrative; a journey by Jesus that ultimately ends in Jerusalem with his eventual crucifixion and resurrection. Luke's passage starts with Jesus' traveling "resolutely" to his destination. Characteristic of his life, Jesus does not take the easy way or shy away from difficulties. Rather than avoiding the route through the more contentious region of Samaria, he decides to move head on. And, as expected he was not welcomed since he was not only a Jew, he was a Jew traveling to Jerusalem. Because of this, James and John ask whether they should call down fire from heaven to consume them. Jesus rebukes them and, in so doing, teaches an important lesson by demonstrating love, as opposed to vengeance. As we go through our day, let us ask God for the strength to accept His invitation to come follow. Allow us to understand that the journey will not always be easy; difficult days and uncertainties lie ahead. But allow us to understand that we are not alone. Let us thank God today for our community of faith that helps us in this understanding.

El evangelio de hoy se conoce como la narrativa del viaje; el viaje de Jesús que lo llevará a Jerusalén para su crucifixión y resurrección. El pasaje de Lucas comienza con Jesús viajando decididamente a su destino. Esto es característico de la vida de Jesús, quien no toma el camino más fácil para ignorar las dificultades. En vez de evadir la ruta más difícil en la región de Samaria, decide continuar a través de esa región. Como era de esperarse, no le dan la bienvenida ya que no solo es Jesús judío, sino que va camino a Jerusalén. Es por esto que Santiago y Juan le preguntan si pueden pedir que baje fuego del cielo. Jesús los regaña y les enseña una lección importante demostrando amor en vez de venganza. Al recorrer nuestro día, le pedimos a Dios la fortaleza para aceptar su invitación a seguirlo. Que podamos entender que la jornada no siempre va a ser fácil; vendrán días difíciles e inciertos. Pero que podamos entender que no estamos solos. Démosle gracias a Dios hoy por nuestra comunidad que nos ayuda en este entendimiento.

Fr. José Ignacio
