A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

"To whom do I belong?" and "Do I believe what I say I believe?" Many times, I find myself chewing these questions and returning to the simple - graced - realization that, if I really belong to the Lord (in whom I am baptized and whose servant I desire to be) and if I really believe what I say I believe (that I have nothing to fear because Jesus has overcome the power of sin and death) then I should be a much more joyful, trusting and courageous person. In the Gospel today, Jesus is laying it out for us today. We really have nothing to fear. Of course, that confronts the fact that we live with a lot of fears. We live, too often, in a self-protective mode, as though we can "control" how safe and secure we are. Jesus is inviting us to live more freely because our life is in his hands and because we are going to enjoy eternal life in his kingdom forever and ever. This is truly what we believe as Christians, and the whole journey of life is truly a journey of internalizing these crucial beliefs. Let us pray for each other that we may do just that!

“¿A quien le pertenezco? y “¿Realmente crees lo que dices creer?” Muchas veces me he hecho esas preguntas y siempre regreso a la sencilla, pero llena de gracia respuesta que si realmente pertenezco al Señor (en quien fui bautizado y a quien deseo servir) y si realmente creo lo que digo creer (que no debo temer nada porque Jesús ha vencido la muerte y el pecado) entonces debiera vivir mucho más alegre y gozoso, confiando y siendo más valiente. En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos habla claramente. Realmente no debiéramos temer por nada. Eso está en total contradicción de que vivimos con muchos miedos. Muy a menudo vivimos protegiéndonos, como si pudiéramos controlar nuestra seguridad y bienestar. Jesús nos invita a vivir más libremente porque nuestras vidas están en sus manos y porque nos preparamos para la vida eterna en el Cielo para siempre. Esto es lo que creemos como cristianos, y toda nuestra vida debe ser un recorrido para realmente interiorizar esas creencias. ¡Oremos los unos por los otros para que así sea!
