A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

In the Gospel today, Jesus is simply asking us to treat everyone the same, to expect the same as everyone else when we do something, and to not feel superior to anyone. These may sound like very simple, reasonable, Christian-like things to do, yet, why is it so difficult to live in such a way? As a priest, I have observed how people can treat me so nicely right after I have seen them mistreat someone else they were talking to right before talking to me. I have seen people make a difference in how they provide for me just because I am a minister of the Church. I have seen how people treat others as less than themselves just because they have a better education, or a better socio-economic condition in life. Every time I see examples of this, it challenges me not to do the same (it is so easy to fail in this!) and to make sure that I am especially aware of this reality in my dealings with others (not always being successful, I must confess). We live in a society that has a cult for celebrities. Jesus would have really struggled with this reality today. He certainly many times received the treatment of a celebrity, but his natural inclination was to hide and disappear from the crowds that would have crowned him king. Think how many times this was his natural reaction, and come up with why is it so difficult for us to do the same. If you can honestly do that, you would have grown as a Christian today!

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos pide que tratemos a todos por igual, que esperemos lo mismo que todos los demás, y que no nos sintamos superiores a nadie. Esto puede sonar sencillo, sin embargo, ¿por qué se nos hace tan difícil? Como sacerdote, yo he observado cómo la gente me trata con mucho respeto justo después que los he observado maltratar a alguien al frente de mí. He visto como la gente hace distinciones conmigo solo por ser ministro de la Iglesia. He visto como hay gente que trata a otros como menos que ellos, simplemente por tener una mejor educación académica o mejor condición social. Cada vez que veo esto, me reto a no comportarme igual (¡es tan fácil fracasar en este reto!) y asegurarme que preste atención a esto en mi relación con otros (no siempre siendo exitoso en esto, debo confesar.) Vivimos en una sociedad que tiene un culto a las celebridades. Jesús hubiera tenido muchos problemas con esto si hubiese vivido hoy. Ciertamente él recibió trato de celebridad en muchas ocasiones, pero su inclinación natural era huir y desaparecer de las multitudes que lo hubiesen coronado rey. Piensen cuantas veces en la Biblia, esta fue la reacción natural de Jesús, y mediten por qué nos es tan difícil a nosotros hacer lo mismo. ¡Si pueden honestamente pensar en esto, habrán crecido hoy como cristianos!
