Statutes and Procedures
of
THE ALLIANCE OF MISSION DISTRICT CATHOLIC SCHOOLS CONSULTATIVE BOARD

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE

SECTION 1. The purpose of the Alliance of Mission District Catholic Schools (AMDCS) Consultative Board is to:

- Advise and consult with the Executive Director in the governance, finance and institutional advancement of the AMDCS
- Formulate policy at the request of the Executive Director to guide the discretionary actions of the AMDCS
- Facilitate the ongoing implementation of a vision for the Catholic Schools within the AMDCS
- Provide leadership for the committees of the AMDCS Consultative Board

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP AND SELECTION PROCESS

SECTION 1. Membership. The Consultative Board shall consist of eighteen (18) to twenty-four (24) members. Appointment shall be based on skill and needed expertise.

- a. Voting members:
  - All members, except ex-officio
- b. Ex-officio members:
  - Superintendent of Catholic Schools and/or delegate and the AMDCS Executive Director

SECTION 2. Eligibility. AMDCS Consultative Board members must meet the following criteria:

- Interest in, and commitment to, Catholic education and the AMDCS mission
- Able to work in a collaborative way for the good of the AMDCS
- Commitment to participate in the regular meetings of the Consultative Board

SECTION 3. Selection Process. The members of the Consultative Board (excluding ex-officio membership) shall be appointed by the Executive Director after consultation with a nominating committee of the Consultative Board; and, with the approval of the Superintendent.

SECTION 4. Tenure of office/removal. Each member, excluding ex-officio members, will hold office for a term of three (3) years, renewable once. Following a transitional schedule of initial rotation determined by lottery, the terms shall be staggered so that one-third of the membership will be appointed each year.

Any member of the Consultative Board, other than an ex-officio member, who is absent from two consecutive regular Consultative Board meetings, unless excused by the Executive Director or the action of the Consultative Board, shall cease to be a member of the Board. The Superintendent and the Executive Director may remove a member of the Consultative Board with or without cause.

Mid term vacancies on the Consultative Board shall be filled by the Executive Director, with the approval of the Superintendent.

ARTICLE III. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. Regular Meetings. The Consultative Board will meet monthly during the school year.

SECTION 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Consultative Board may be called at the request of the Executive Director.

SECTION 3. Quorum. A quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Consultative Board shall consist of a simple majority of the members of the Consultative Board then in office. If less than such a number is present at a meeting, discussions may take place; however, no binding decisions may be made. The members present shall then adjourn the meeting and shall provide notice of adjournment to the other members.

SECTION 4. Visitors. Visitors may attend and observe the proceedings of the meeting unless the Board determines it needs to go into executive session.

SECTION 5. Visitor Conduct. Visitors may address the Consultative Board according to the procedures established by the Consultative Board currently in office.

SECTION 6. Executive Sessions. The Chair or the Executive Director has the right to call an executive session. These executive sessions will consist of all members of the Consultative Board and ex-officio members.

ARTICLE IV. MANNER OF ACTING

SECTION 1. Manner of Acting. In its deliberations, the Consultative Board shall work toward achieving consensus. After an appropriate time for deliberation, and if consensus cannot be reached, each member shall be allowed one vote on all matters coming up for vote before the Consultative Board. Recommendations will be based upon a simple majority of those members present.
