The Shepherd Speaks

"All I want for Christmas is my two front teeth...." These words of a child in this old Christmas song express the wonder and truth unique to children. That's what would make them happy, at least for the moment. We adults so easily forget that sense of innocence. We trade it for appearance's sake, duty, repaying debts, etc. May I recommend when you buy your gifts this year, buy them because you want to surprise another with something they really want, that you've thought through, and that you can afford. Otherwise, the gift is not honest or loving. When you decorate your home do so with the desire to please your family and neighborhood, not because you are trying to outdo your neighbor or winning a lighting contest out of pride. When you party, do so with people you genuinely like or love, and not because you feel you have to.

May we not lose sight that the purpose of this Advent Season is to prepare to please our God who shared Himself with us in time for all time. Spend some extra time with Him in prayer and good works, and Christmas will come, and we will feel the Joy of Christmas, gifts or no gifts, decorations or no decorations, partying or no partying. God bless you all!!!
