The Gospel and the Responsibility of Our Faith

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God.

In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

Sts. Peter and Paul Building Anniversary

We are gathering historical material on Sts. Peter and Paul Church for the 50th anniversary of the dedication of the current church and rectory. If anyone has photographs from the April 6, 1986, Parish celebration of the Texas Sesquicentennial, or other events please contact Jeff Spencer.

Treasures from Our Tradition

One of the great treasures of the Eastern tradition is the icon of the Holy Trinity created by the Russian iconographer Andrei Rublev in the 1400s. The Trinity is symbolized by the three travelers to the tent of Abraham and Sarah. They are seated at a table blessing a cup of wine, under the oak of Mamre. If you look closely, you will see a sacrificed calf in the chalice, reminding the viewer of the cross.

Bursting Through

Nature is too thin a screen; the glory of the omnipresent God bursts through everywhere. —Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Clergy Corner --- Graduation: Time of Change

Graduation is in the air and on my mind. Peggy and I just returned from the graduation from college of our 3rd grandchild. And we just had the Senior Mass this past weekend with 8 seniors from Immaculate Conception and 9 seniors from Sts. Peter & Paul, graduating this very weekend.

As we were lining up for the Entrance Procession at the Senior Mass, I asked our young people graduating how they were feeling. I got this uncertain shrug. So I asked, "Are you excited?" And all the heads bobbed up and down slowly. Then I asked, "Are you scared?" And all the heads bobbed up and down again, more vigorously.

I knew how they felt. I grew up in a small town, smaller than Bellville but larger than Industry. At graduation, I remember feeling excited because I knew I was setting out for a new adventure, going to college, and who knows what else. But I also felt scared, because I had lived my whole life in this little town where I knew everyone and everyone knew me. It was scary because I knew this was a Time of Change. My life would never be the same. Something new was taking place.

But you know, I felt the same way as a parent (excited and scared) when our children left home. It is a Time of Change, of Transformation, of Letting Go. We have such hopes for them, our children in our family and in our worshiping community. And change is always exciting and scary. But like the Easter season that has just ended, change is about Becoming. It is knowing that God is with us always. We belong to God. And God walks with us each step we take. Through all the exciting times, and the scary ones, through all the Times of Change, God is changing us to become what He created us to be.

My dear Graduates, you may be leaving us to go into the world. But you will always be in our thoughts and prayers. And personally, I will miss seeing you each week. Come back often. Come Home to us.

Grace & Peace, Deacon Gerald
