CCE Registration for Sts. Peter and Paul

Dear Parents, If you or someone you know, have not registered for CCE, please do so prior to our September 12th start date. You can pick up your forms in the gathering space, or at the Church office. Please return them to the Church office as soon as possible. Thank you for your co-operation! In the Love of Christ, Kimberly Harrelson.

The Shepherd Speaks

Your Pastor Has Made a Decision

This past Tuesday I experienced a miracle for the first time, though I know many of you would say "Oh, that is old hat", but to me it was NEW – Web-based training! This is a new tool for the various members of the staff to better coordinate and systemize information. I could not remember what was going on, but the staff was overjoyed with this new program. To me it is a "miracle" of the present age. The Parish Office will be able to access CCE information without having to phone or email the CCE personnel. The CCE personnel will be able to access information about registered parishioners without contacting the Parish Office. It was something to behold, and for me an amazing awakening.

During a recent oil change at Ryan Ford, as I was in the waiting room, I had occasion speak to a salesman. Naturally we spoke about cars. I found it hard to believe, but we now have cars that can park themselves, stop front end collisions, find the closest seafood restaurant, and even let you know where to find the cheapest gas in the area. It is a MIRACLE!!! But you have to have a "smart phone".

Therefore, this coming week I am going to abandon the fight that I have fought so well until now – this week I am getting a "smart phone". But I will always love my old "flip phone".

Fr. Tim

Have you been thinking about exploring the Catholic faith? Would you like to learn more about what Catholics believe and how we worship? Whether you are deeply interested or merely curious, we invite you to join us to explore the Sunday scriptures, answer questions, and discuss basic Christian beliefs from a Catholic perspective. Meetings are very informal and everyone is welcome. For more information, please contact the rectory office (979-865-2368) or Deacon Gerald DuPont.

Sts. Peter & Paul CCE Volunteers Needed

We are still in need of assistance for this year's CCE program. We need two aides for Sunday Morning classes. This entails assisting the existing teacher, helping in the classroom where needed, and possibly teaching on the occasion the teacher is unable to make his/her class. On Wednesdays, we are in need of one teacher, and 3 aides. Please prayerfully consider if this opportunity to share your faith and grow our children's Faith is a calling for you. For more information, contact Kimberly Harrelson.

Strengthened by the Bread of Life

Today we resume the "Bread of Life" discourse from John's Gospel that began two weeks ago. He makes reference to the Jews' ancestors who ate manna in the desert. These days we would think primarily of Israel wandering in the desert, but faithful Jews would also have known the story of Elijah that we hear today. Strengthened by food and drink in the desert, the angel of the Lord sends him on his forty-day and forty-night journey (the biblical number for a preparation time).

Like the food given to Elijah in the desert, Jesus tells his listeners that he is bread for the life of the world. It is very important that we not stop listening to Jesus after his promise of eternal life—a marvelous promise, but this "reward" is not the only reason we feast on the Bread of Life. We also come to the table to be made strong for the journey of mission, that the whole world might have life in the fullness of Christ. We are compelled, if we have eaten of the bread of life, to go forth in service to all.

Treasures from Our Tradition

You may have noticed that the two "Treasures" columns about the oldest monastic communities in the United States refer to the colonial states. The Louisiana Purchase gained a great treasure for our nation, the Ursuline monastery of New Orleans. Among the greatest pioneers of that city were nuns who came from France in 1727. These were genteel, well-educated Ursulines, yet their first task was to open a hospital to care for the pestilence-ridden colony. Next, they opened a school for girls to educate the women being shipped over from France to marry settlers. In this way, they had enormous influence in molding patterns of family and domestic life.

At Christmastime in 1814, the threat of a British assault on the city was growing. On the terrifying night of January 7, 1815, the women of New Orleans gathered in the monastery chapel to pray that the city be spared from destruction in battle. The mother superior made a vow to have a Mass of Thanksgiving on that date every year should the Americans win. That night, Our Lady of Prompt Succor, to whom the nuns had great devotion, became the protector and patron of this great city. The convent in the French Quarter is the oldest standing building in the Mississippi valley. The nuns relocated in 1824, but their old monastery is preserved as a museum and an Archdiocese archive. The school the nuns began, Ursuline Academy, is the oldest continuously operating Catholic school, and school for women, in the United States.

I am turning 75 on September 6! It is a time for me to reflect on my blessings. And a time to thank you for being among them!

Yours in Christ, Fr. Ron
