On this my last Sunday Mass with you I want to express my immense gratitude. It has been a complete privilege and joy to have served this community over the last almost two years. From the very start you welcomed me, overlooked my inexperience, forgave my mistakes and supported me; for this I will always be thankful beyond words. I will not forget the opportunity you gave me to learn and grow in my ministry and indeed my priesthood; you have given me a priceless gift. Please know that you will forever be in my thoughts and prayers. I do not say goodbye because I expect to stay in touch with you and hope we cross paths many times in the future.

I know you will welcome Father Alexander Tigga, as you did for me, with open arms to St. Therese Parish & Our Lady of the Angels Mission. Fr.'s first mass will be Friday May 24, 2019 8:00am.

May God Bless You abundantly, today and every day. Fr. George
