

Our Lady of Prompt Succor Catholic Church

2320 Paris Road, Chalmette, Louisiana 70043

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time January 14, 2018

Dear Parishioners,

Happy New Year to all!

After the busy Christmas and New Year celebrations, we're finally back to our normal and ordinary routine. Our school community has started the New Year with a Mass in honor of Our Lady of Prompt Succor last Monday, January 8th, on her feast day.

I'd like to thank those who participated in the Parish Ministries Christmas gathering on December 30th. I thank you all for your dedication and untiring service to OLPS Parish. Our Church and gym Christmas décor were beautiful. Kudos to Michael Lambert and Hector Guzman for a job well done!

The priests of the Archdiocese of New Orleans will have their annual retreats in the coming weeks ahead. I belong to the first group of retreatants and will be out of town for my retreat from Monday thru Friday, January 15-19, 2018. If you need pastoral care you can call our office or Fr. Sal for assistance. Rest assured of my prayers as I spend my days in quiet and reflection. Please pray for the success of the priests' retreats.

Last weekend, Deacon Lino stated in his letter about his leave from pastoral ministry here at Prompt Succor. Deacon Lino is presently undergoing mentorship formation with the Diaconate Office. We thank Deacon Lino for his faithful ministry and service to OLPS. Let us pray for him as he spends time away from OLPS.

Know that Fr. Sal and I pray for you daily.

*Your servant in Christ,
Fr. Marlon*

Treasures from our Tradition

"Ordinary Time" began for us this week. On the old calendar, the feast of the Presentation, still more than two weeks away, was the last day of the Christmas season. Sadly, Bethlehem is hardly a place of peace on earth these days. The ancient Christian community has been largely uprooted by political strife. The Church of the Nativity stands (barely) in remarkable disrepair and disorder in Manger Square. The roof is crumbling, the major doorways are blocked, the wiring is faulty, and the worship life is disrupted by quarrels among Eastern Christians.

The church was founded by the Emperor Constantine in 325, destroyed in a Samaritan revolt in 539, and rebuilt by the Emperor Justinian. When the area came under Muslim control in 638, the holiness of the church was respected, and in return Christians allowed Muslims to pray in the south aisle, a right still upheld. Earlier in that century, invading Persians were ordered to destroy all churches, but when they saw the magi carved over the doorway of the Church of the Nativity, they spared it out of respect for their ancestors who bore gold, frankincense, and myrrh to the same city. The Crusaders restored and redecorated the church by the twelfth century, and it is their plan that survives. Down a few stone steps is a stone grotto with a silver star marking the place of Christ's birth: when the star was stolen in 1847 it triggered an international crisis that exploded into the Crimean War.

Since 1852, the church has been shared by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Armenian Churches. The Greeks are in charge of the grotto, but don't enjoy the best of friendships with the Armenians. Catholics have the care of the Chapel of the Manger, and avoid the squabbles by a separate entrance to the Franciscan monastery church of St. Catherine. Pray for peace in Bethlehem!

Pornography is a pervasive problem today for people of all ages, especially teens. However, many parents aren't sure how to protect their families, beyond using traditional internet filters. In this presentation, Matt Fradd offers parents a detailed look at the way pornography harms us and offers practical strategies that parents need to implement if they are to protect their children from the lies of an over-sexualized culture.
