TEN NEW PRIESTS TO BE ORDAINED FOR WASHINGTON! KEEP PRAYING FOR VOCATIONS!

Ten new Priests to be ordained for Washington! Keep praying for vocations! Archbishop-elect Wilton Gregory will ordain 10 new priests for Washington at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception on June 15. This is one of the largest ordination classes in recent years. As in each of the last two years, one of the newly ordained has served as seminarian in our parish. Following in the footsteps of Father Jorge Ubau (2017) and Father Andrew Clyne (2018), Deacon Michael Russo is to be ordained to the Priesthood of Jesus Christ "through the imposition of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit" (words in the invitation card). You are all invited to attend his ordination beginning at 10 am Saturday, June 15. The whole ceremony takes close to two hours. If you have never attended any ordination, it is a great opportunity not to be missed.

God willing, Deacon Michael Russo will be the fourth OLHOC seminarian to be ordained to the priesthood, the first one being Fr. Chip Luckett, who was our first-ever seminarian (2012). You will recall that Deacon Michael came to serve at one of our Sunday Masses last August and gave us a wonderful homily, which was published in our weekly bulletin. Michael served our parish very effectively and with much love in June/July 2014. Among many activities, he revamped our website, helped train new altar servers, and was a wonderful Master of Ceremonies for the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the ordination of my entire class (a total of eight priests who celebrated a Mass of thanksgiving together at our parish). Before coming to college in Washington, DC, he lived for many years with his family in Waltham, MA (near Boston) not far from my own seminary (St. John XXIII in Weston). One of my own assignments as seminarian was at St Mary's Church in Waltham (very close to his home). When St Mary's pastor, my former supervisor, learned that Michael was assigned to my own parish, he called to remind me that Michael was from Waltham, that he knew him and his family well, and that he still hoped that Michael might be ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Boston. Being Washington-centered, we are all delighted that Michael chose to continue studying for the priesthood here and did not return to Boston!

As already announced earlier, you are invited to join us for a Holy Hour for Vocations on the First Saturday of June (June 1st) to pray for the ten priests to be ordained June 15th. I have already told Michael that on that day, he will be very much in our prayers at OLHOC. On the following day, Sunday, June 2nd, Father Eamon Dignan has accepted our invitation to celebrate the 10 am Mass with us in honor of his completing 60 years of priesthood! Fr. Dignan, born in Ireland, was ordained a priest for Washington on May 31, 1959. What a blessing to serve the church for 60 full years!!! Fr. Robert Pittman also reached 60 years of priesthood last July (July 13) and he had wished to celebrate it at our parish, but due to a stroke, he had to move to Ohio to be in a nursing home close to his religious community. We are glad that we can honor Fr. Dignan. As our second pastor at OLHOC, he is the one who completed the construction of our church building in 1990. He served our community wonderfully for a total of 17 years: 1987-2004. Mark your calendars for 10 am Mass Sunday, June 2nd. We will provide more details shortly.

We are also pleased to announce that beginning Monday, May 20th, seminarian John Winslow will join our parish for his summer assignment. John's own parish is just a few miles south of us: St John Francis Regis, Hollywood. After spending 3 years at St John Paul II Seminary, he is now completing his first year at Theological College where he was accepted as part of the Basselin Scholars Program (a five-year formation for a few seminarians selected from the entire United States). I know that, as in past years, you will all welcome our new seminarian. Those summer assignments are an important part of the formation and discernment process of seminarians. Some of you have asked in the past when Deacon Joseph Salser will be ordained to the priesthood. We had expected him to be ordained last year. Joseph has recently informed me that he will not be ordained this June. Joseph has asked us to keep him in our prayers as he has discerned that it was not God's plan for him to become a priest. He has also expressed his thanks for all the support he received while serving at our parish. I know from my own experience in seminary that the discernment to the priesthood continues until the day of ordination. To become a priest is to follow God's will, not our own will.

As a parish community, let us continue praying for vocations to the priesthood and the religious life. Let us pray for all the seminarians currently in formation, including Leon Gilmore who is completing his fourth year at St. John Paul II Seminary, Pablo Villa, who is completing a Pastoral year, and John Winslow, who will join us this summer. Let us also continue praying for our own youth at OLHOC: may they be open to hear God's call! Special prayers go to the 51 youth confirmed by Bishop Dorsonville last month (April 26) and the 73 who received their First Communion last Saturday (May 4). Let us pray also for their parents, grandparents, sponsors, and their teachers of religious education at OLHOC. We are most grateful to God for all the blessings He keeps pouring on our parish.

Come Holy Spirit! Fill our hearts with Your Love! Come Holy Spirit! Help us love one another as Jesus loves us! Come Holy Spirit! Help us see Christ in everyone we meet! In this month of May, the month of Mary, may our Mother in Heaven keep protecting us, especially all the mothers of our parish as we celebrate Mother's Day this Sunday!

*One in Christ,
Father Alain*
