Called to Love: Theology of the Body Summer Intensive Course

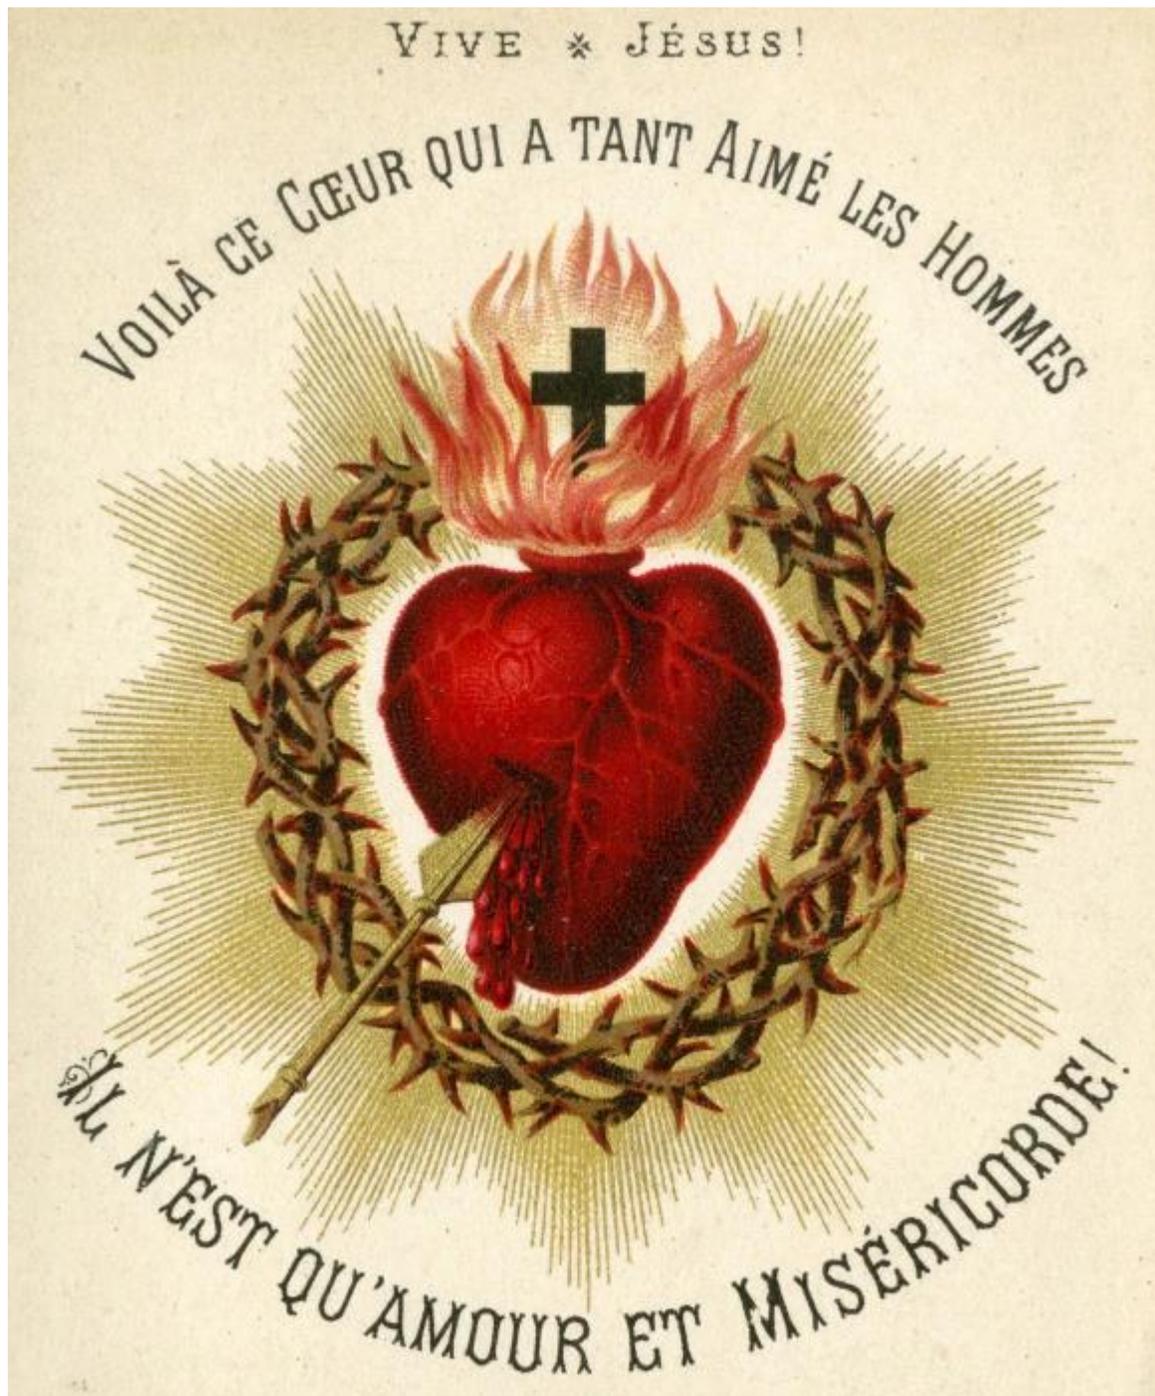

July 15- July 19, 2019

Join us this summer for a unique opportunity to immerse yourself in John Paul II's Theology of the Body! This short, one-week intensive course studies his "Wednesday catechesis" – through an in-depth examination of the text and a discussion of his scriptural, theological, and philosophical methodology. It shows how the dual unity of man and woman and their interpersonal communion, even in the body, image divine trinitarian life. Please purchase a copy of the book before the course begins: Man and Woman He Created Them: A Theology of the Body by John Paul II (Boston: Pauline Press, 2006. ISBN: 0819874213). Reading assignments will be distributed in advance to allow students to prepare for the course. Registration

The class fee is $150. Registration forms are available on the right side of the page. Registrations may be submitted by mail or via e-mail to information@johnpaulii.edu.

Registration closes on July 1. For more information, email: information@johnpaulii.edu or call 202.526.3799.

Faith and Sexuality Series Part II

Sunday, June 30, 2019
6:30 pm to 8:30 pm

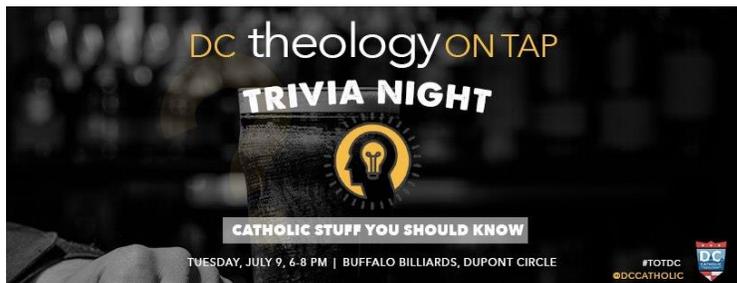

St. Dominic Church
Parish Meeting Room
630 E St. SW
Washington, DC 20024

Free and Open to All

JUN30 St. Dominic Church - Washington DC – 630 E St. SW, Washington DC 20024

You and your friends are invited to join us on Sunday, June 30 as we continue our summer speaker series about Faith and Sexuality. For nine consecutive Sunday evenings, St. Dominic Church will host an expert speaker to teach us about how to live out the Church's teachings around various topics regarding sexuality. The second talk will be a witness testimony by two survivors of sexual abuse, and Miguel Prats and Jason DeSilva will be giving the talk. This is a potluck event: please bring a side dish to share. We look forward to seeing you there!

About the speaker: Miguel Prats is more than his experiences as a survivor of abuse: he is also an advocate for all people who have suffered abuse. He has been dedicated to the organization he founded, the Maria Goretti Network, whose tagline is: "For Recovery and Forgiveness." He also says that the rosary, St. Maria Goretti, St. Josephine Bakhita, St. Maximilian Kolbe, and Dawn Eden's book, My Peace I Give You helped his his own journey towards healing. Miguel is an example of someone who takes action against the things that caused him pain: he is actively changing the downfalls of the Catholic Church and constructing a path towards healing, not just for himself, but those around him.

JUL9 - July Theology on Tap: Trivia Night

DCCatholic-Young Adult Ministry in the Archdiocese of Washington

Buffalo Billiards – 1330 19th St NW, Washington DC 20036

Join us for fun night of Catholic Trivia! Bring your friends, Catholic or not! Come as a team or by yourself and we'll put you on a team!

All young professionals (21-late 30s) are invited to our monthly DCCatholic Theology on Tap at Buffalo Billiards in Dupont Circle to explore the role of faith in our daily lives. Grab a drink and hear straight talk and honest answers to your questions about faith, love, work and other real life experiences. All are welcome, Catholic or not! Bring your friends and meet other young professionals for Happy Hour specials from 6-7pm with a talk and Q/A to follow from 7-8pm. #totdc
