

Ongoing Formation

After completing any level of formation, persons engaged in ministry are encouraged to continue learning and taking advantage of any course and workshop offerings as they are able.

Active ministers are expected to take at least 5 hours of ongoing formation each year to keep their knowledge and skills current.