

Summer Reading Activities

Please choose 1 of the books from the Summer Reading List. Then choose 1 activity below to create using the book you chose. Assignments will be due on the 1st week of school.

- *Make a poster about the book using one or two of the following media: finger--paint, water colors, crayons, chalk, real materials.
- *Create a puppet or finger puppet about your favorite character.
- *Make up another ending for the story. Include pictures/drawings.
- *Cut out magazine pictures to make a collage or poster illustrating the idea of the book.
- *Draw a picture postcard to a friend about what the book is about.
- *Draw a portrait of the main character and write a 2 sentence summary to accompany your sketch.
- *Draw a comic strip of your favorite scene.

Be Creative and have LOTS of fun!!!!

Fiction Books

Horrible Harry Moves Up to Third Grade, Suzy Kline

Ramona Quimby, Age 8, Beverly Cleary

The Keeping Quilt, Patricia Polacc

Non- Fiction/Informational Books

Next year we will be learning about plants, animals and their habitats, the water cycle, weather patterns, landforms, natural resources, space, community helpers, colonies and pioneers, the Revolutionary War, Local and U.S government, budgeting and incomes, and you may want to read a book on one of these areas to prepare for the upcoming year. I have picked out a couple that you may enjoy reading.

If You Were a Kid During the American Revolution, Wil Mara

You Wouldn't Want to Live Without Trees!, Jim Pipe
