Only God loves perfectly, Pope Francis says

Vatican City, Feb 20, 2019 / 04:09 am (CNA/EWTN News).- Despite the best efforts of human beings, it is only God the Father who will never fall short in loving his children, Pope Francis said Wednesday. “No one must doubt that he is the recipient of [the Father’s] love,” the pope said Feb. 20. “He loves us, he loves me, we can say. He loves us even if our father and our mother have not loved us, there is a God in heaven who loves us as nobody on this earth has ever done and will ever do.” This means, he said, that though it is impossible to find perfect love on earth, among imperfect creatures, “there is another love, that of the Father ‘who is in heaven.’” “This is a perfect love,” he commented. “If all our earthly loves also crumble, and there remains nothing but dust, there is always for all of us, burning, the unique love of God.”

Quoting the prophet Isaiah, he said: “Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you.” This expression of a Father “in heaven” is meant to express a difference, not a distance, he explained. It is a tireless love that never ends and is always within reach. This contrasts with the love of human beings, he noted, who though trying their hardest to love others, will be forced to face the reality of their limitations, the “poverty of our forces,” and the difficulty of keeping promises that in a moment of grace may have seemed easy to achieve.

“Therefore, do not be afraid!” he urged. “None of us is alone.” Even if someone has the misfortune of having an earthly father who has forgotten them, they have not been denied “the fundamental experience of the Christian faith,” he said, “of knowing that you are a beloved child of God, and that there is nothing in life that can extinguish his passionate love for you.”

TRAVELING ICON OF MARY

Corpus Christi Knights of Columbus will have the traveling Icon of Mary here at our parish, Saturday and Sunday, March 2nd and 3rd. During the Holy Hours scheduled that weekend we will also recite the Rosary and special prayers for persecuted Christians throughout the world.

MARIAN PRAYER - OUR LADY HELP OF PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

A Higher Purpose

Spread devotion to Our Lady and pray for our brothers and sisters of faith who are at risk around the world through the Marian Prayer Program. As the new Marian image is brought on pilgrimage through the jurisdiction, councils will host the Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians icon for a prayer service at their parish.

Overview

The 2018-2019 Marian Prayer Program presents the 18th Marian image sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, this time of Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians. Each Knights of Columbus jurisdiction receives several Marian images, which serve as the centerpieces for prayer services conducted in churches and council meeting places throughout the Order for the duration of the initiative. Since its inception in 1979, the Knights of Columbus' Marian Prayer Program has held more than 166,900 local council and parish prayer services with some 20 million participants. This year, the prayer service is intended to raise awareness of the plight of Christians persecuted for their faith and to stand in prayerful solidarity with them.

A pesar de persecución católicos en Nigeria se mantienen firmes en la fe “hasta la muerte”

Los católicos en Nigeria, perseguidos por grupos islámicos radicales como los terroristas de Boko Haram, están dispuestos a mantenerse firmes en la fe “hasta la muerte”. Así lo aseguró a ACI Prensa el P. Kenneth Chukwuka Iloabuchi, sacerdote nigeriano que hoy desarrolla su ministerio en la diócesis española de Cartagena. El sacerdote nigeriano visitó varias ciudades de México a mediados de febrero como parte de la segunda Noche de los Testigos, organizada por la fundación pontificia Ayuda a la Iglesia Necesitada (ACN). “Hay un caso que me llama la atención”, dijo, señalando que se trata de “una mujer que durante la Misa de la Nochebuena tuvo que perder a todos los miembros de su familia”.

“Esta mujer dijo en el entierro que no va a rendirse, que permanecerá siendo una católica hasta la muerte, que eso no le va a quitar la fe”, recordó. Para el P. Kenneth, “con esta paz del corazón, con esta actitud de perdón, están dando un gran testimonio”. Dijo que los cristianos que viven en el norte de Nigeria “están sufriendo y es donde también nosotros hoy estamos viendo un gran testimonio de la fe, a pesar de los sufrimientos en las manos de Boko Haram, que es un grupo de terroristas que quieren borrar en este mundo las huellas del cristianismo”.

“Incluso los cristianos no saben lo que puede ocurrir el día de mañana, la mayoría de ellos no pueden andar libremente”, señaló. “Los cristianos que vienen los domingos, que celebran las Misas los domingos, entran en una iglesia pero no saben si volverán a salir”. El sacerdote recordó que hace dos años, al visitar un pueblo al norte de Nigeria, “en medio de la Misa se acercó un sacristán, un ayudante, y me dijo que se había recibido un mensaje de que Boko Haram va a entrar en el pueblo y que van a atacar a la gente, que van a atacar a los cristianos”.

“En un momento dado estuve asustado y le pregunté si tenía que terminar la Misa para que se vaya la gente. Y me dijo que no, que jamás por el miedo de este grupo, de los fundamentalistas, se han marchado de la iglesia. Nunca han abandonado su iglesia por el miedo de que van a entrar a matar a la gente, porque si empiezan a vivir así, estos habrán ganado la guerra”.

El P. Kenneth confesó que tuvo temor; “pero viendo a la gente alabando a Dios, viviendo la ceremonia, rezando, yo me tuve que preguntar: ‘Tú, siendo un sacerdote estás con miedo, mientras esta gente está alabando a Dios’. Y tuve que coger este ánimo de la gente para celebrar dignamente la Sagrada Eucaristía y celebramos bien sin problema”. “Desafortunadamente, por la noche de aquel mismo día, recibimos un mensaje de que ya habían entrado en otro pueblo que estaba al lado y mataron seis personas. Al día siguiente estuvimos en el entierro de esas personas”, recordó.

El sacerdote destacó el trabajo pastoral de la jerarquía de la Iglesia en Nigeria, pues “no es fácil para un joven de 17, 18 años, ver morir a sus padres, a todos los miembros de sus familias. Y se queda en paz”. “Están trabajando fuerte los ministros de la Iglesia, empezando desde la Conferencia Episcopal de Nigeria y los sacerdotes que viven en las parroquias con la gente, porque lo que están predicando es el perdón, la jus-
