ST. JOSEPH MISSION STATEMENT

Since 1886 the rural Roman Catholic Community of St. Joseph Parish in Hayward, WI has gathered to acknowledge God's many blessings here in the northwoods. We challenge ourselves to live out our baptismal call by embracing the gospel values: faith in the family, commitment to community, and reverence for all human life. We dedicate ourselves to the spiritual, educational and social needs of the people. Always striving to do better, we strengthen our Catholic faith by embracing our traditions, celebrating his love in public worship, and sharing that love with others in our daily living.

From the Desk of.....

Fr. Gerard

Dear parishioners, visitors, guests and benefactors—

This is our last big push for the Paul Todd concert. If you are unsure about going, I strongly encourage you to attend the concert. This will truly be an uplifting experience. You will be happy you went to the concert. Please show your support and have a great time at the same time.

This summer someone asked about the availability of visitor envelopes. Since then we have fulfilled the request by providing visitor envelopes in the entryways of the church.

This next topic is about the Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) that will begin the weekend of August 19-20. That weekend we will view a video from Bishop Powers. This is a major pledge drive in which each and every Catholic parish participates. Both parishes have a “fair share” goal set up by the diocese. We are required to meet that goal; otherwise we must take the money out of our regular checking account. Last year St. Joseph met our goal, but St. Ann did not reach the goal.

This year's goal for St. Joseph in Hayward is $55,989.00 and St. Ann's is $16,743.00. I know these are large amounts for both parishes. We also need the help from our summer parishioners, visitors and friends to help reach our goals. We all need to work together to obtain our goal. Many parishioners pledge over a six-month period to make it easier in pledging toward the goal. You will be hearing more about it in the next couple of weeks. Please be open and pray about your commitment to the CSA. Your generosity is always appreciated. May God Bless you always.

As ever—

*Fr. Gerard Willger, Pastor
 St. Joseph & St. Ann*

Spiritual Adoption—Week 1

Behold, children are a gift of the Lord; the fruit of the womb is a reward. Ps 127:3 What joy! Your baby has now found a safe resting place in the mother's womb. The baby attaches to the wall of the womb and begins the development of the placenta which will nourish the baby during the pregnancy. This new life has multiplied rapidly in size and is now made up of hundreds of cells. Your baby has also developed a protective hormone to prevent the mother's body from rejecting it as foreign tissue.
