April 8, 2018

2nd Sunday
OF EASTER

Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe."
- Jn 20:26b-27

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

From the Desk of.....

Fr. Gerard

Dear parishioners, visitors, guests and benefactors—

This weekend is Divine Mercy Sunday. In the year 2000, Pope John Paul declared that the Sunday following Easter Sunday is called Divine Mercy Sunday. As you know, through Saint Faustina, Jesus gave us the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Divine Mercy image and the Diary of St. Faustina. On Sunday, April 8, an additional mass will be offered at 2:00 pm. Confessions will be offered at 1:00 pm. Even if you attended an earlier mass, you are most welcome to come by the church at 2:50 pm for the additional prayers and Divine Mercy devotions. Divine Mercy Sunday is a reminder that Jesus is a merciful God who wants us to approach him with a humble heart.

I also want to take this time to thank many of you who were directly involved in the Holy Week and Easter liturgies. All of you (greeters, ushers, sacristans, musicians and choir, servers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, decorators, etc.) help make these special liturgies more beautiful and meaningful. Your participation reflects the deep spirituality, alive faith, and a willing spirit within both of our parish communities. Thank you for your participation.

I also want to thank you for the many Easter cards, kind words of support, and prayers shared with me at Easter. Your kindness and support are deeply appreciated by me.

Next weekend at St. Joseph Parish we will host parish council elections. I know since my arrival in Hayward, the parish council has worked hard in building up our parish community. The way has not always been easy. But your hard work and dedication shows how much you love our parish and you want what is best for our community. At times we may disagree, but it is beautiful how we can come together on many projects and see the fruit of our labor. I want to thank all those who have run and serve on both parish councils. Your time and energy for our parish continues to build up our parish communities. May God Bless you always.

As ever—

Fr. Gerard Willger

Spiritual Adoption—Week 36

"I hope my mommy loves me as much as the Mother of God, Mary, loves Him."

"The free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord."
 Romans 6:23b

Your baby has really fattened up. He likely weighs between 6-7.5 pounds; boys tend to be heavier than girls. He has a firm grasp. Fingernails are getting longer and may need to be cut soon after birth. Mom is supplying the baby with antibodies that will help protect the baby against disease.

One Million Rosaries for Unborn Babies

You are invited to participate in this pro-life event which has taken place for about 10 years with over 70 countries worldwide participating. Participants are asked to pray at least one Rosary on May 4, 5 or 6 for an end to abortion. To register for this prayerful event, please contact Bob & Mary Ornberg at (715) 699-1287 or email rornberg71@gmail.com.

Rummage Sale—May 11-12

If you are starting your spring cleaning, please consider saving and donating your items for our rummage sale to be held May 11-12.

Attention Life Savers

Our Spiritually Adopted babies are soon to be born! Join us at a "baby shower" potluck celebration on Saturday, April 21, following the 4:00 pm Mass. We will be providing the punch, dessert, games and prizes and ask you to bring a dish to pass and an unwrapped gift (see baby's wish list) for your Spiritually Adopted baby. These gifts are used to supply our baby bags delivered to needy babies at the hospital. If you cannot attend and would still like to donate a gift, you may place it in the bassinet at church. Sign up sheets for the potluck are in the parish hall. Any questions, contact Mary Jane Moffett at (715) 462-9060.

EVENTS/ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Pastoral Council Elections

The St. Joseph Pastoral Council will be filling one seat being vacated this spring. Please see the bulletin insert for information about the two parishioners who are running for parish council. The election will be held next weekend, April 14-15.

Collecting Silent Auction Items Now!

The youth of St. Joseph's parish ask you to prayerfully consider donating new items or handcrafted items for our silent auction on May 6. Some ideas include: Handmade or new woodcrafts, blankets, artwork, tickets/passes to an event, new electronics, hotel stays, gift certificates, gift baskets, etc. We are starting to collect items now and they can be dropped off at the parish office or religious education office. Thank you!

Personal Retreat

Fr. Michael Gaitley's 33 Days to Morning Glory is a do-it-yourself, at home retreat in preparation for Marian Consecration or just to deepen your devotion to the Blessed Mother. The retreat start date is April 10, with Consecration on May 13, the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima. If you are interested, the book is available at shopmercy.org or on Amazon.com. For more information, contact Teri at 634-2867.

Dinner Out

If you live alone from St. Joseph or St. Ann parishes, you are invited to meet on Saturday, April 14, at 6:00 pm at the Flat Creek Inn in Hayward. For reservations, call Evelyn at (715) 798-5151.

Coming Events

Today—The Knights of Columbus are having their membership drive. All the men in our parish are invited to stay after Mass for a few minutes and attend the presentation.

April 10—Community dinner will be held at the Cable Community Center from 5:00 to 6:00 pm.

Empty Bowl Event—April 14—We need your bowls! Every year BRICK ministries organizes the event that helps feed hundreds of people in our area. Food is provided by the area's finest restaurants and bowls by the area's most generous public. If you have a unique bowl of ceramic, pottery, glass, metal or wood you would like to donate for the event, we would be very grateful. Volunteers are also needed! The sign-up sheet and a basket for your bowls are in the back of the church. The event will be held at the Cable Community Center from 4:30 to 7:00 pm. Tickets are $10.00.

This month our local food shelf is asking for boxed meals, tuna, and baking goods (no flour or cereal please). Thank you very much for your continued support.

Spiritual Adoption—We are coming to the end of our 9-month journey and many have donated money and special gifts for the little ones. If you still want to share in giving hope and gifts for the babies, please do so by April 15. There is a box for clothing or other gifts in the back of church by the St. Ann statue. You can still make a financial donation by putting it in an envelope marked "spiritual adoption" and place in the collection box. Please do not put in the large gift box. Remember—we are not having a shower this year, but all gifts will be distributed to people and families in our area. Thank you and God Bless. ~ Julie Rottier (715) 794-2811
