From the Desk of.....

Fr. Gerard

Dear parishioners, visitors, guests and benefactors—

Last Friday was the fundraiser at Treeland Resort for the kitchen that puts on the Community Suppers on Wednesday. I could not be more proud of you as Catholics who supported this fundraiser with your presence and generosity. The entire Hayward community is grateful for your support.

The past two weeks St. Joseph Church had new flooring and carpet installed. I want to thank so many of our parishioners who worked so hard in removing carpet, removing pews, installing pews and cleaning up. Your hard work, time and spirit of cooperation has been noticed and greatly appreciated. I want to also thank the entire parish community and visitors who have been so generous in making this project possible; your generosity is overwhelming. Look at what a parish can accomplish when we work together. Take some time to appreciate the improvement and beauty of the new floor and carpet. May God continue to bless you and this parish.

Your ongoing support to the youth in our parish community is also always appreciated. This Sunday closes out the silent auction and also a pancake breakfast is provided for your enjoyment. Next week, May 11 and 12, is the rummage sale. You are encouraged to promote it through advertising and shopping. I also know many who work long hours in order to make this a success. Again, your efforts and interest are greatly appreciated by many.

May is the month of Mary. I want to remind us that our spiritual mother is to help us on our spiritual journey. Let us continue to develop our relationships with the Blessed Mother during the month of May. May God continue to bless you always.

As ever—

Fr. Gerard Willger
