Fr. Gerard

Dear parishioners, visitors, guests and benefactors—

This weekend begins the gun hunting deer season. I pray for a successful and safe hunting season. I hope you kill all the deer that would run into cars so you can keep our roads safer. We added an additional Mass this Saturday only at 6:00 pm for the convenience of the hunters.

This Thursday as a nation we celebrate Thanksgiving Day. Although this is a secular holiday, this gives us a great opportunity to step back and think of the blessings in our lives. Let us think of some things for which we are thankful. I am thankful for the opportunity to serve at the Catholic parishes of St. Joseph and St. Ann. I am thankful for family and the friendships in my life. Please check the bulletin for the Thanksgiving Masses offered at St. Joseph-Hayward.

We recently received a statement from the diocese on the balance of the CSA goal. For St. Joseph the CSA goal is $61,467.00. St. Ann's goal is $15,327. So far, $42,517 has been received toward the goal for St. Joseph. That means $18,950.00 is still left to pay on the balance. So far $12,905 has been raised for St. Ann. So many of you have been so generous in working toward these goals. We still have a way to go to reach our goals. If you haven't been able to either pledge or forgot to contribute toward the goal, now is the time to help. Your generous response is always appreciated. Thanks again for everything. May God Bless you always.

As ever—

Fr. Gerard Willger
