From the Desk of.....

Fr. Gerard

Dear parishioners, visitors, guests and benefactors—

I first want to take this time to thank all of you for your cards, gifts, kind words, photos and prayers on Christmas 2018. I am grateful for your kindness and support as your pastor, not only at this time of the year, but throughout the year. I am humbled by your expressions of generosity and love toward me.

The weekend between Christmas and New Year's is called Holy Family. I ask God for a special blessing upon all of our families. Families are under a lot of pressure in many ways, as well as attacks from the devil. I pray for all of our families; may God's peace, protection, healing and guidance be with all of our families.

This weekend I would like to bless all families. The Knights of Columbus are very "pro family." They have produced a special prayer for families that will be bestowed upon all of us this weekend. Thank you Knights.

A short time back the Knights of Columbus brought forward the "family of the month." (We will do this once a quarter.) I am happy to announce this quarter's "family of the month" is the Cory and Lisa Andraschko family. They will receive a blessing and a certificate. May God bless and protect their family always.

On Tuesday we begin another calendar year. Again, for Catholics it is a Holy Day of Obligation. The mass schedule for New Year's is exactly the same as the weekend mass schedule. If there is any confusion please consult the bulletin for the mass times and place. There will be NO 5:15 pm Mass on Tuesday, January 1.

In the past eight months there has been a lot of work by a subcommittee on the columbarium. It has been explained to the parishioners of both parishes in a number of different ways. The permission was granted by our Bishop to proceed with the project. Next weekend, January 5-6, will be the kick-off weekend for the columbarium. If anyone wants to pre-order their niche in the columbarium, you are encouraged to pick up a packet after the mass.

I want to wish each and everyone of you a peaceful and joy-filled 2019. Happy New Year!

As ever—

Fr. Gerard Willger

Elizabeth Ministry Christmas Project

You can still bring in your donations of newborn size only diapers and baby wipes through Epiphany Sunday, January 6, Elizabeth Ministry is asking for donations of these items which will be used in the gift bags for our hospital ministry. There will be two baby bassinets set up by the entrances where you will be able to leave your gifts. Thank you as always for your generosity.

Adorers Needed

The Divine Mercy Chapel is in need of Adorers. Give some thought and prayer and listen to hear if Jesus might be calling you to devote an hour a week for the praise and glory of his real presence in the Eucharist. Please call Rosalie at (715) 634-4331. Hours needing adorers:

Men interested or possibly interested, leave your phone number at the church office. Learn more at exodus90.com.

Family of the Month

The Knights of Columbus Family of this quarter is the family of Cory and Lisa Andraschko, for being an inspiration to our parish, community and council by supporting and strengthening Catholic Family Life. The Knights of Columbus offer this program to recognize and support the development of strong families within our parish. Please join the Knights in congratulating the Andraschko family!
