PRESS RELEASE

Woonsocket, Rhode Island, US - November 15, 2017

THE ROSE FERRON FOUNDATION OF RHODE ISLAND IS PROUD TO ANNOUNCE: "LITTLE ROSE" IS BEING HONORED

"Little Rose," Marie-Rose Ferron, Mystic, Stigmatist, Ecstatic of Woonsocket, RI (1902-1936), will be honored with a group of early 20th century Rhode Islanders and inducted into the Rhode Island Heritage Hall of Fame, Sunday, December 03, 2017, 2:00pm, as part of the 21st Annual Historical Induction Convocation, Historic Bristol Courthouse, 240 High St., Bristol, RI.

The event is open to the public and all are cordially invited to attend.

David P. Ethier, President, and Founder of the Rose Ferron Foundation of Rhode Island, will be the recipient on behalf of inductee, "Little Rose."

"Little Rose" will be sharing the recognition with many prominent Rhode Island figures including politicians, philanthropists, humanitarians, artists, architects, authors, business owners, physicians and religious leaders that shaped the State of Rhode Island in the early 1900's.

Dr. Patrick Conley, President of the Hall of Fame, Chairman of Historians' Committee, and Master of Ceremonies will help provide life stories of new inductees as well as background behind each selection.

As part of the celebration, guests will enjoy a collation offered by Bristol's DeWolf Tavern.
