

Grades 9-12

- The High School Program is for students in grades 9-12. Students can choose one session option for the fall then switch to the other session option in the winter/spring, or remain in one option for both semesters.
- Confirmation preparation is separate from, and in addition to, the high school program. To be eligible for the sacrament, students should be in the 10th grade and up with good overall religious education attendance including one year of high school religious education.
