The Lord Alone is First!

This week's readings speak of our choice for God alone – above and beyond all other choices! Probably, we say to ourselves, “I agree with that” and really believe that we do. However, when “push comes to shove” we most likely have a difficult time with the “carry through”!!

Choosing God and God's ways FIRST, instead of our own, is daunting. For instance, we might reflect on an invitation in the parish bulletin to help serve lunch one Sunday a month at a nearby shelter for the homeless. Immediately, we can think of three excuses why that would not be possible! At home, perhaps, we know that what we have chosen to do is very annoying to another member but we again make excuses and do it anyway thinking, “I have rights, too”!

In order to put God FIRST in our lives, we need to KNOW and LOVE this God! We need to have a personal, real relationship with the Lord Who loves each of us so very much.

The only way to do that is to be reading something from the four Gospels (the life of Jesus and His message) daily and then to spend quiet time with God in prayer, maybe ten minutes a day, speaking AND listening! This is absolutely “key.” One may choose to pray to the Father or to Jesus or maybe connect with the Holy Spirit. The three Persons are ONE God and this loving Lord is very near, right WITHIN each of us, in our spiritual center or “soul”.

Once we have a true love relationship with our Trinitarian God, we quickly want to know more, as in any relationship. We want to really get to know the Beloved as much as possible! In addition, we do not want to do anything that would damage or take away from the bond that has been formed, a bond of deep trust and love for God Who is always directing us, forgiving us and showing us a better way to go, a better decision to make or a way to be a better person!

November is National Vocation Awareness Month. A “vocation” means a calling from God or an invitation from God to take a certain path in life. Very often, it just presents itself – like meeting someone, falling in love and getting married. Our desires and openness to possibilities help, but generally, it is a discernment process (weighing the pros and cons). Aided by prayer and consideration for our values along with serious thought, we are assured that our final choice is a “yes” to God's “call”! The Holy Spirit greatly helps but we must trust and rely upon that help, too, to be sure that we are truly seeking love and service for God and others and not just self-gratification!

Knowing and loving God, praying daily and listening put us on the right path for keeping our Lord FIRST and that does make all the difference right now AND for all eternity. It also gives us PEACE!!

An Regina, CSJ
