Jesus said to them, "This is My blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION for Sunday, June 3, The Body and Blood of Christ

What grounds us in our faith? What gives us identity as believers in Christ? What is at the center of our Catholic lives? Today, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. It is bread that becomes the true Body of the Lord and wine that becomes the true Blood of the Lord. The great gift of the Church is to gather on the day of resurrection and meet our Christ in word and sacrament. Today, we pause and give thanks for the great sacrament of the Body and Blood of the Lord.
