Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 22, 2018

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. Jesus said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place.

Thankfully the Thank You notes are seemingly at an end...

While notes of Congratulations and gifts/benefactions for vestments continue to trickle in, it seems that the overwhelming task of writing and sending hundreds of "Thank You notes is really not insurmountable after all. Thanking all those who wrote, called or prayed for me on the occasion of my Jubilee was a daunting task and I sincerely hope that no one has been overlooked for I am deeply grateful to each of you. I must trust that all know my gratitude beyond my power to express it.

Benedictions,

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Richard Allen Prevost (Brother of Michele Welchko). May flights of angels wing him to Paradise, and may his soul and the souls of all the Faithful departed through the Mercy of God, Rest in Peace...Amen

LITURGICAL REFLECTION for the 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 22, 2018

By burying the bodies of the faithful, the Church confirms her faith in the resurrection of the body, and intends to show the great dignity of the human body. The Book of Genesis tells that we are each made in the image of God, in body and soul. The body of the deceased Catholic is the body once washed in the waters of Baptism. This body was anointed with the oil of salvation. This body ate and drank the very Body and Blood of Christ, the Bread of Life. It is the same body that reached out in service to the needs of others.
