The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 3, 2019

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of Him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from His mouth. They also asked, "Isn't This the Son of Joseph?" -Lk 4:21-30

"Let's hike to Heaven!" is a quote from St. John Bosco's dream about Heaven. What about that hike? What can we expect along the way? What may we find there? Let's talk about it at our monthly 'get-together' of Holy Conversations, on Tuesday, February 5, following morning Mass in the Spiritual Resource room in the lower level of the Parish Center.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – In the Gospel today, Jesus shows us that we are called to place Gospel values before any other values and to be willing to put our lives on the line for them. Taking care of God’s poor is indeed living Gospel values. Is God calling you to join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU...

Dear Father Ananias and Parishioners,

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for all your kindness, generosity and support for my family. Words cannot begin to describe how much love and care we feel in our hearts because of all you have done for us. Sarah, Emma and I are overwhelmed with the kindness you all have shown to us.

My wife, Sarah, means the world to me. She is the most caring person I know, who taught me how to care for others in an authentic way. Thank you so very much for having the fundraiser in your Parish Center. May God bless you and your parishioners with good health and all His graces. May Almighty God guide each of you on the path of salvation towards the Kingdom of Christ.

Please be assured of my prayers for you and your parish community. May God bless you!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Rev. Andriy Kelt
